VENI CREATOR.

Come Holy Ghost eternall God, proceeding from above:
Both from the Father and the Sonne,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our mindes, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godlinesse
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse.
The fountaine and the living spring
of joy celestiall.
The fire so bright, the love so cleare,
and unctiō spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs Church doth stand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our wits
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknesse,
so feeble and so fraile:
That neither flesh, the world nor devil
against us do prevaile.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtaine
Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or dildaine.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide:
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant we thee pray:
That thou maist be our Comforter,
at the last dreadfull day.
Of all strife and dissension
O Lord dissolve the bands:
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his deare beloved Sonne
we may attaine the light.
And that with perfect faith also we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway, one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equall:
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send To all that do professe his Name, unto the worlds last end.

The humble suit of a sinner. M.

O Lord on whom I do depend behold my carefull heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrowes what they are,
my griefe is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is prest,
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my teares and grievous grones:
Attend unto my suit O Lord,
mark well my plaint and mone.

For sin hath so inclosed me,
and compass me about:
That I am now remedilesse,
if mercy help not out.
For mortall man cannot release,
or mitigate this paine:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was staine.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.

Venite exultemus.

Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same,
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.

Left that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickednesse,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my selfe cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise:
And in thy Church and house of Saints sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now rejoyce;
And sing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face;
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefices, Alwaies distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalmes now let us sing.

And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops, of all
The mountaines farre and neare.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:

Te Deum.

And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him;
And down before him fall:
And let us kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are:
His flock, and sheepe of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice;
Then harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime,
Whereas your father tempted me;
And tri'd me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These fourty years I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I said they er'd
In their imagination, (Crod
Wherewith their hearts were sore cum-
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I said assuredly,
They have not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger swore;
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestially,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord;
O that of might art most:
To God the Father and the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore:
And is now at this present time;
and shall be evermore.

The song of Saint Ambrose, called Te Deum.

WE praise thee God, we knowledge
the only Lord to be: (thee
And as eternall Father all the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens,
and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,

The Song of the three Children.

of Sabbath Lord the God : Through heaven and earth thy praise is and glory all abroad. (spread,
 Th' Apostles glorious company
 yeeld praises unto thee:
 The Prophets goodly fellowship
 praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of Martyrs sound thy praise:
 The holy Church throughout the world
 doth knowledge thee alwaies.
 Father of endlesse Majesty
 they do acknowledge thee, Thy Christ thine honourable, true,
 and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
 of glory thou art King,
 O Christ, and of the Father art
 the Son everlasting.
 When sinfull mans decay in hand
 thou tookest to restore:
 To be inclos'd in Virgins wombe,
 thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death
 the sharp and cruell might:
 Thou heavens kingdome didst set open to each beleeving wight.
 In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand:
 We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
 our cause to understand.

Lord help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood:
 And in eternall glory set them with thy Saints so good.
 O Lord do thou thy people save,
 blesse thine inheritance:
 Lord govern them, and Lord do thou for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
 and world without an end Adore thy holy Name: O Lord vouchsafe us to defend
 From sin this day: have mercy Lord,
 have mercy on us all:
 And on us as we trust in thee,
 Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I have reposed all
 my confidence in thee:
 Put to confounding shame therefore,
 Lord let me never be.

33 O Azarias blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.
34 And Mizaël eke blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THe onely Lord of Israel
be praised evermore:
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeemed,
That long have been in thrall:
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,
According to his minde:
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all
Of times he did declare
The which were since the world began,
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfill:
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to performe the oath
Which he before had sworne,
To Abraham our Father deare,
For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himselfe for us,
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteousness:
And also for to lead our lives
In stedfast holinesse:
And thou (O Child) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect:
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His waies for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face
For to prepare his waies:
And also for to teach his will,
And pleasure all thy daies.
To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neare:
And that remission of their sinne
Is through his mercy meere.

Magnificat. Nunc dimittis.

Whereby the day-spring from on high
Is come, us for to visit:
And those for to illuminate,
Which do in darknesse sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke oppress:
And also for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of blessed Marie, called Magnificat.

My soule doth magnifie the Lord,
My spirit eke evermore:
Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Saviour.
And why? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto:
So base estate of his hand-maid,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call:
Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame:
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his Name.
He shewed strength with his great arme,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations:
That they have in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat:
And did exalt the mecke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.
The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deale:
Hath holpen up assistantly
His servant Israel.

According to his promise made To Abraham before:
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire Hath wished long to see:

Quicunque vult.

My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Sonne before I die.

The joy and health of all man-kinde,
Desired long before:
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy servant now
In peace for to depart;
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set (Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quell:
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The Symbole or Creed of Athanafius, called Quicunque vult.

WHat man soever he be that salvation will attain:
The Catholike belief he must before all things retain,
Which faith nulleth he holy keep,
and undefiledly:
Without all doubt eternally
he shall be sure to die.

The Catholike belief is this,
that God we worship one In Trinity: and Trinity in Unity alone.
So as we neither do confound
nor mix the Persons three:
Nor yet the substance whole of one in sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
another of the Son:
Another person proper of the Holy Ghost alone.
Of Father Son and Holy Ghost
but one the God-head is:
Like glory, coeternall eke
the Majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son in each degree:
And such also we do believe the Holy Ghost to be:
Uncreate is the Father, and
uncreate is the Son:

The Holy Ghost uncreate, so uncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Son:
And comprehensible also is the Holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternall, and the Son eternall so:
And in like sort eternall is
the Holy Ghost also.

And yet though we believe that each of these eternall be:
Yet there but one Eternall is,
and not eternals three.
As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet uncreate three:
But one incomprehensible, one uncreate hold to be:

Almighty so the Father is,
the Son almighty so:
And in like sort almighty is
the Holy Ghost also.
And albeit that every one of these almighty be:
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Son, God Holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God and no mo.
So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Son:
And Lord the Holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compeld to grant
by Christian verity,
Each of the persons by himselve
both God and Lord to be.
So Catholike Religion
forbiddeth us alway,
That either Gods be three, or that three Lords be there to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create nor begot:
The Son is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got.
The Holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Sonne:
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three:
one Sonne also, not three:
One Holy Ghost alone, and not three Holy Ghosts to be, None in this Trinity before nor after other is.

The Lamentation of a sinner.

Ne greater any than the rest
ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves
of all the Persons three, Together coeternall all
and all coequall be.
So Unity in Trinity,
as said it is before:
And Trinity in Unity,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that salvation will attaine:
This faith touching the Trinity,
of force he must retaine.
And needfull to eternall life
it is that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe, and eke do know, That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God,
is God and man also,
God of his Fathers substance, got
before the world began:
And of his mothers substance born,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Jesus Christ,
That doth of reasonable soule,
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his God-head equall with his Father God is he:
Touching his Man-hood, lower than his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of God-head
into the flesh of man:
But by taking Man-hood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one:
But onely by the unity
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule
and flesh but one man is,
So in one person God and Man is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save us all;
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose againe from death;
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
th' Almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick & dead,

again he shall appeare.

At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new restor'd:
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternall life
shall go that have done well, Who have done ill, shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike belife,
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt he saved cannot be.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turne not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate Lamenting fore his sinfull life,
Before thy mercy gate:
Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin:
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account;
How I have lived here:
For thea I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appeare.
I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have beene and what I am;
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heavens and earth were made;
Thou know'st what things were then:
As all things else that have beene since,
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay nay, thou know'st them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat:
Even as the childe that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercy gate;
Where mercy doth abound:
Requiring mercy for my sin,

The Lords Prayer.

To heale my deadly wound.
O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st (O Lord) before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the totall summe,
For mercy Lord is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater noster.

Our Father which in Heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name:
Thy Kingdome come, thy will be done in earth, even as the same in Heaven is. Give us O Lord, our daily bread this day:
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation leade us not,
from evill make us free:
For kingdome, power and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The x. Commandments. Audi Israel.

Heark Israel and what I say
give heed to understand:
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house where thou didst
in thraldome live a slave:
None other God as all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above,
nor in the earth below:
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
so them thou shalt not bow.

Nor shalt them serve, the Lord thy God
a jealous God am I:
That punish parents faults, unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vaine shalt never use:
For him that takes his Name in vaine
the Lord will not excuse.

The X. Comm andements.

Remember that thou holy keep,
the sacred Sabbath-day:
Six daies thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God hath set to rest upon:
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy sonne;
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maide,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place.

For in six daies, God heaven and earth
and all therein did make:
And after those his rest he did upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordaine:
And loved so himselfe alone
appointed to remaine.

Yeeld honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy daies may be Upon the land, the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murther. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steale. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-servant nor his maide,
nor Ox nor Asse of his:
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a sinner.

Where right conscience doth say,
Lord for my sinfull parts,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert.
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confesse,
How that continually
Thy lawes I do transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend:
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plaine tells me:
The righteous man offendeth

The Complaint of a sinner.

Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path:
But he fals now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise:
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousnesse none have:
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to save?

But truly to that poist, Whereto I cleave and shall:
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or els we perish all:
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare

No drop of blood in thee:
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sin repleat,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortall sin:
That my foes infernall
Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernall foes:
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercy grows,
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the just:
That unto thee belongs,
Which art my only trust.

THE PSALMES OF DAVID IN MEETER.

PSAL. I. T.S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his care:
Nor led his life, as sinners do, nor fate in scornners chaire.
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himselfe both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that growes
fast by the rivers side, Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in her due time and tide.
Whose lease shall never fade nor fall
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the winde drives to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or fight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrowen.

PSAL. II. T.S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brained
Why did the Jewish people muse, seeing all is but vaine?
3 The Kings and Rulers of the earth conspire and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

4 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law,
let us reject the yoke,
5 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:

And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say to them upon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy Law
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe
did say to me I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely Son,
to day I thee begot.
8 All people I will give to thee,
as heires at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them brise even with a
as men under foot trod:
And as the potters sheards shalt break
them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in feare:
See that with reverence ye rejoyce
to him in like manner.
12 See that ye kisse and eke embrace
his blessed Son I say:
Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath never so small shall kindle in his breast:
O then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happy be and blest.

PSAL. III. T.S.

O Lord how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more:
3 They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.
4 But thou (O Lord) art my defence,
when

when I am hard beset:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose againe:
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustaine.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks & teeth
of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above: Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

PSAL. IIIII. T.S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord heare me when I call,
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.

2 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my request:
For unto thee uncessantly,
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortall men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness I say:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust away.

7 The greater for grave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:

But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more ioyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corne and wine

full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
For thou onely wilt me O Lord, alone in safety keep.

PSAL. V. T.S.

Incline thine eares unto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider:

2 And heare my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.

3 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness
and ill, with thee dwels none.

5 And in thy sight shall never stand these furious fooles O Lord:
Vaine workers of iniquity,
thou hast alwaies abhor'd.

6 The lyars and the flatterers thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord leade me in thy righteousness
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk,
before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouthes there is no truth,
their heart is foule and vaine:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do close and faine.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heapes of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad alwaies:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

PSAL. VI. T.S.

Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:

Ne

Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord: I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear:

And heale me Lord, for why thou know'st
my bones do quake for feare.

3 My soule is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:

But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my misery?

4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soule up take:

O save me not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:

Or who shall worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I wax wondrous faint:

All the night long I wash my bed
with teares of my complaint.

7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart:

For feare of those that be my foes,
and would my soule subvert.

8 But now away from me all ye that work iniquity:

For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not onely the request
and prayer of my heart:

But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame:

And suddenly confound them all to their rebuke and shame.

PSAL. VII. T.S.

O Lord my God I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a Lion he me teare,
and rend in pieces small,

While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right:

Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight.

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distresse:

Which me gursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse.

5 Then let my foes pursue my soule,
and eke my life down thrust

Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to paine:

Performe the kingdome promised to me which wrong sustaine.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing.

If thou declare for love of them,
thy selfe as Lord and King.

8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord now judge thou me

According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second Part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:

By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descri'd.

10 I take my help to come of God
in all my paine and smart:

That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

11 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:

So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and houre.

12 Except he change his minde, I die;
for even as he should smite,

He whets his sword, his bowe he bendeth,
aiming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrowes keene and sharp;

For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

14 But lo though he in travell be of his devilish fore-cast,

And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch and delves it deepe
in hope to hurt his brothers

But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:

And all the mischief that he wrought,
shall fall upon his head.

17 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteously:

And with my song will praise the Name of him that is most high.

PSAL. VIII. T.S.

O God our Lord how wonderfull are thy works every where:

When

Whose fame furmounts in dignity,
above the heavens cleare!

2 Even by the mouthes of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:

For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine owne hand:

4 The Sun, the Moon and all the starres,
in order as they stand.

4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then that thou dost him remember?

Or what is mans posterity,
that thou dost it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little lesse
then Angels in degree:

And thou hast crowned him also with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord
of all thy works of wonder:

And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:

8 Fowles of the ayre, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once againe,
O God that art our Lord:

How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world!

PSAL. IX. T.S.

With heart & mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:

And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and therein declare alwayes.

3 I will be glad and much rejoyce,
in thee O God most hie:

And make my songs extoll thy Name
above the starrie skie:

4 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:

They fall down flat, and are destroid
by thy great power and might.

5 Thou hast revenged all my wrongs,
my griefe and all my grudge:

Thou dost with justice heare my cause
most like a righteous Judge.

6 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked so confound:

That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.

7 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroid:

Thou hast their fame with them defaced,
through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou that he which is above
for evermore shall raigne,

And in the seat of equity
true judgement will maintaine.

8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:

And so will yeeld with equity
to every man his right,

9 He is protector of the poore,
what time they be oppress:

He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.

10 All they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee:

For thou forsakest not their suit
in their necessity.

The second Part.

11 Sing Psalmes therefore unto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill:

Publish among all nations,
his noble acts and will.

12 For he is mindfull of the blood
of those that be oppress:

Forgetting not the afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.

13 Have mercy Lord on me poore wretch whose enemies still remaine:

Which from the gates of death art wont,
to raise me up againe.

14 In Sion that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice:

And that in thy salvation Lord,
my soule might still rejoyce.

15 The heathen Rick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd:

And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are shar'd.

16 God shews his judgements, which were for every man to mark: (good.

When as ye see the wicked man lie trap'd in his own work.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men go down to hell for ever:

And all the people of the world
that will not God remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poore mans grief and paine.

The patient people never look for help of God in vaine.

19 O Lord arise lest men prevails that be of worldly might:

And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.

20 Lord strike such terror, feare and dread
into the hearts of them:

That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

PSAL. X. T.S.

WHat is the cause that thou O Lord
art now so farre from thine?
And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?

1 The poore do perish by the proud and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.

2 For in the lust of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himsele,
and doth the Lord despight:

4 He is so proud, that right and wrong
he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God saith he,
or thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his waies do prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blast doth pusse against such as would him correct.

6 Tush tush saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change:
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of thirstnesse,
of fraud, deceit and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travell all the while.

8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poore that passe him by,
his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lyon privily
lieth lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoile poore simple men.

10 And for the nonce fall craftily
he croucheth down I say:
So are great heapes of poore men made by his strong power his prey.

The second Part.

11 Tush God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

12 Arise O Lord, O God, in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forget not Lord,
the poore that be oppress.

13 What blasphemie is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhorre it?
To heare the wicked in their heart
say tush, thou canst not for it?

14 But thou see'st all their wickednesse,
and well dost understand

That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse are left into thy hand.

15 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for ever
That they with their iniquity may perish altogether.

16 The Lord shall raigue for evermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folk
out of the land each one.

17 Thou hear'st (O Lord) the poore mans their prayer and request: (plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirme untill
thine eares to heare be prest.

18 To judge the poore and fatherlesse,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more oppress by men of worldly might.

PSAL. XI. T.S.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soule untill?
Flie hence as fast as any fowle,
and hide you in your hill.

2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmelesse brest.

3 Of worldly hope all staies were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:
Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royall majesty.

The poore and simple mans estate,
considereth in his minde:
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind:

5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will use
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischief use.

6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any raine:
Fire and brimstone, & whirl-windes thick,
appointed for their paine.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousnesse embrace:
And to the just and upright men
sheweth forth his pleasant face.

PSAL. XII. T.S.

I Flie Lord for good and godly men,
do perish and decay

And

And faith and truth from worldly men is parted cleane away.

2-Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vaine
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and fame.

3-But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout, (brag)
To speak proud words and make great
the Lord soon cuts them out.

4-For they say still we will prevaile,
our tongues shall us extoll:
Our tongues are ours we ought to speak,
what Lord shall us controll?

5-But for the great complaint and cry
of poore and men opprest:
Arise will I now faith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6-Gods Word is like to silver pure;
that from the earth is tri'd:
And hath no lesse then seven times
in fire been purifi'd.

7-Now sith thy promise is to help;
Lord keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kinde of men.

8-For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold:
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extold.

PSAL. XIII. T.S.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord?
shall I nere be remembred?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?
2-In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me?

3-Behold me now my Lord my God,
and heare me sore opprest:
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death possrest.

4-Lest that mine enemies say to me;
behold I do prevaile:
Lest they also that hate my soules
rejoyce to see me quail.

5-But from thy mercy and goodnesse,
my hope shall never start:
In thy reliefe and saving health right glad shall be my heart.

6-I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

PSAL. XIII. T.S.

There is no God as foolish men
affirme in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vaine;
not one of them doth good.

2-The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind:
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to finde.

3-They went all wide and were corrupt;
and truly there was none
That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

4-Is all their judgement so farre lost,
that all work mischief still?
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?

5-When they thus rage, then suddenly great feare on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.

6-Ye mock the doings of the poore,
to their reproach and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7-But who shall give thy people health;
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill?

8-Even when thou shalt restore againe
such as were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. XV. T.S.

O Lord within thy Tabernacle,
who shall inhabite still?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?

1-The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speakes no deceit.

2-Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods or name:
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empaire the same.

4-That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and feare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5-His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

6-That putteth not to usury
his money and his coynes:

Psalme xvj. xvij.

Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else perloyne;

Who so doth all things as you see;
that here is to be done:
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSAL. XVI. T.S.

Lord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confesse indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods,
O Lord thou hast no need.

I give my goods unto the Saints
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faithfull flock
in vertue that excell.

They shal heap sorrowes on their heads,
which run as they were mad,
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.

As for their bloudy sacrifice,
and offrings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintaine
my rent, my lot, my chance.

The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his meanes my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one,
corruption for to see.

But wilt me teach the way to life;
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSAL. XVII. T.S.

O Lord give eare to my just cause,
attend when I complaine;

And heare the prayer that I put forth;
with lips that do not feine.

And let the judgement of my cause proceed alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicity.

Thou hast well tri'd me in the night;
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.

As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.

Then in thy paths that be most pure;
stay me Lord and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.

For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:
Then heare my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have said.

O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurn against thy Majesty.

O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second Part.

From wicked men that trouble me;
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about my soule for to destroy.

Which wallow in their worldly weakh
so full are they and fat:
That in their pride they do not spare
to speake they care not what.

They lie in wait where I should passe;
with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their minde
to cast me to the ground.

Much like a Lion greedily that would his prey embraces Or lurking like a Lions whelp, within some secret place.

Up Lord, in haste prevent my foe;
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soule from the ill man;
and with the sword him smite.

Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time rained have;
and kept us in their bands.

I meane from worldly men, to whom

all worldly goods are vife:
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies filst
with pleasure to their minde:
Their children have enough and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSAL. XVIII. T.S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.

2 My God my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler and my shield,
the home of all my health.

3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd:
Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preserv'd:

4 The pangs of death did compasse me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickednesse
did put me in great fear.

5 The sie and subtil snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coles of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high:
And underneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of the skie.

10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the windes
came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:

With waters black and airy clouds environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face
in brightnesse shall appear:
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coles of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding chear
The springs and the foundations of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below:
And pluck'd me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free:
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard:
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his waies,
and in his paths have trod:
And have not sinned wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:

His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean and uncorrupt,
appear'd before his face:
And did refrain from wickednesse,
and sin in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is,
wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and vertuous men
right vertuously wilt do.

25 And

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.
26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie:
And dost bring downe the countenance
of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will make also my darknesse to be light.
28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit Lord I shall:
By thee I scale and over-leap
the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the waies of God,
his word is purely tri'd:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
30 For who is God except the Lord,
for other there is none:
Or els who is omnipotent,
saying our God alone?

The fourth Part.

31 The God that guideth me with strength is he that I do mean:
That all the waies wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.
32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftnesse of my pace:
And for my surety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands
to battell and to fight:
To break in sunder barres of brasse,
he gave mine armes the might.
34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plaine
the way where I should walk:
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.
36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me avoid:
And from the field do not return,
till they be all destroyd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.
38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to waite in such a wise:
That they be all scattered abroad,
that up against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into mine hands
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroke.
40 They call'd for help, but none gave nor help them with relief: (care)
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grieve.

The first Part.

41 And still like dust before the winde,
I drive them under feet:
And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknowne,
and yet they shall me serve:
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.
44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise:
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he alwaies.
46 For God it is that gave me power, revenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdued
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me above those
That cruell and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.
48 And for this cause O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall:
And sing out praises to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all:

49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the King I say:
To David thine anointed King
and to his seed for aye.

P S A L M X I X. T. S.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works, and what they are.
2 The wondrous works of God appears
by every daies successe:
The nights likewise which their race run
the self same thing expresse.

3 There-

3 There is no language, tongue or speech
where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is confer'd.
4 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown:
Who like a bride-groome ready trim'd,
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand,
some noble enterprise.
6 And all the skie from end to end he compasseth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heat;
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure:
Converting soules, and making wise
the simple and obscure!
8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and minde:
His precepts pure and do give light to eyes that be full blinde.

9 The feare of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be embrac'd alway,
then fined gold I say:
The hony and the hony-combe
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is fore-warn'd
to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevaile not over me:
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSAL. XX. T.S.

IN trouble and adversity,
the Lord God heare thee still:
The Majesty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need:
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that new to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt offerings each one.
4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee:
And all thy counsell and device,
full well performe may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us say'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his graces:
And send him help by his right hand,
out of his holy place.
7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
8 They fall down flat, but we do rise;
and stand up stedfastly:
9 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSAL. XXI. T.S.

O Lord how joyfull is the King,
in thy strength and thy power?
How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour?
2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast deny'd;
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold:
And thou hast set upon his head,
a crowne of perfect gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure:
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help;
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both;
thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay:
And with thy chearefull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prevaile:
Wherefore his goodnesse and his grace
will not that he shall quaille.
8 But let thine enemies feele thy force, add

and those that thee withstand, Finde out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

- 9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease:

- 11 For why, much mischief did they muse
against thy holy Name:
Yet did they faile, and had no power
for to performe the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place:
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.
13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore in thy strength every houre:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

PSAL. XXII. T.S.

O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly?

And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry?

2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call:

I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell:

Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever:

And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name:

And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man:

An out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way: (heads,

They grin, they mow, they nod their
and on this wise they say,

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love:

Let him redeeme and help him now

his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe;
I came by thy behest:

Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast,

10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode:

Since I was in my mothers wombe,
thou hast been ere my God,

The second Part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me
in this my present griefe:

Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and reliefe.

12 So many buls do compass me,
that be full strong of head:

Yea buls so fat, as though they had
in Bathan field been fed,

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:

Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop do vne like water shed;
my joynts in sunder break:

My heart doth in my body melt,
like waxe against the heat.

(strength)

15 And like a potsherd drieth my my tongue it cleaveth fast

Unto my jawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke

Conspire against me cursedly,
they pierce my hands and feet

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told:

Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all:

And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre
from me at my great need:

But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.

20 And from the sword Lord save my soul,
by thy might and thy power:

And keep my soule, thy darling deare,
from dogs that would devoure.

21 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder shiver:

And from the hornes of Unicornes
Lord safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record,

And

And in thy Church shal praise the Name of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

23 All ye that feare him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him.

And all ye seed of Israel,
with reverence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awry

His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crie.

25 Among the folk that feare the Lord,
I will therefore proclaime

Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poore shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do endeavor

To seek the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall live for ever.

(Lord)

27 All coasts ofth'earth shall praise the
and turne to him for grace:

The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:

And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his godly gifts shall feed and taste also:

And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:

My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

31 My seed shall plainly shew to them that shall be borne hereafter

His justice and his righteousness, and all his works of wonder.

PSAL. XXIIII. W.W.

THe Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:

How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need?

2 He doth me fold in coats most fast,
the tender grass he fast by:

And after drives me to the streames
which run most pleasantly.

3 And when I feele my selfe neare lost,
then doth he me home take:

Conducting me in his right paths,
even for his own names sake.

4 And though I were even at deaths door
yet would I feare none ill;

For with thy rod and shepherds crook,
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deck'd,
in despite of my foe:

Thou hast my head with balme refresh'd
my cup doth overflow.

6 And finally, while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:

And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T.S.:

MY shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need:

In pastures faire with waters calme,
he sets me for to feed.

2 He did convert and glad my soule,
and brought my minde in frame:

To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.

3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:

Thy rod, thy staffe do comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:

Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me:

That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

PSAL. XXIIII. T.S.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:

Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it,
above the seas to stand:

And laid alow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who, is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill?

Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

4 Whose hands are harmlesse, and whose
no spot there doth defile:

His soule not set on vanity, (heart
who hath not sworne to guile.

5 Him that is such a one the Lord shall place in blisfull plight:

And God his God and Saviour shall yeeld to him his right:

6 This is the brood of travellers,

in seeking of his grace :
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :

For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

8 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the strong and mighty Lord :

The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and triall of the sword.

9 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :

For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

10 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the Lord of hosts it is :

The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

PSAL. XXV. T.S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just :
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me :
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies unto me Lord descry:

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember:
And eke thy pitie plentifull,
for they have been for ever.

6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy finde :
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy minde.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep :

He will direct in all his wayes,
the lowly and the meek.

9 For all the waies of God
are truth and mercy both:
To them that keep his Testament,
the witness of his troth.

The second Part.

10 Now for thy holy Name
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct :
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.

12 His soul shall evermore
in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.

13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Testament.

14 Mine eyes and eke my heart to him I will advance :
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.

15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.

16 The troubles of my heart
are multipl'd indeed: Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.

17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my paines:
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.

18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that faine would live in peace.

19 Preserve and keep my soule,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrowne,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple purenesse
me from mine enemies shende:
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldst me defend.

21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
from all their paine and grief.

PSAL. XXVI. I.H.

Lord be my Judge, and thou shalt see,
my paths be right and plaine:
I trust in God and hope that he will strength me to remaine.

2 Prove me my God, I thee desire,
my waies to search and trie:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reines and heart espie.

3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face,
I durst behold alwaies:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my daies.

4 I do not lust to haunt or use,
with men whose deeds are vaine:
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.

5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtfull things devise.

6 My hands I wash and do proceed,
in works to walk upright,
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous waies
thou hast been good to me.

8 O God thy house I love most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I have delight, and would be neare
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not up my soule with them
in sin that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.

10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (Guile)
And their right hand with wretch & will for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and daies to serve:
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.

12 My foot is staid for all assaies,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples fight.

PSAL. XXVII. I.H.

The Lord is both my health & light,
shall man make me dismayd?
Sith God doth give me strength & might,
why should I be afraid?

3 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl: (Strength)
And think to eate me up at length themselves have caught the fall.

5 Though they in camp against me lie
my heart is not afraid:
In battell pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny:
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell:
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most pure:
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace shall make me strong and stout:
My foes to foile and cleane deface,
that compasse me about.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalmes and songs I will apply to laud the Lord alwaies.

The second Part.

9 Lord heare the voice of my complaint,
for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppress,
and send me help withall.

10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face fast thou to me,
Lord I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.

12 My parents both their sonne forsooke,
and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himselfe yet took
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:
For feare of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.

14 Do not betake me to the will of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see

in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou his will abide thou must: (art,
And he shall ease and strength thy heart
if thou in him do trust.

PSAL. XXVIII. T.S.

THOU art (O Lord) my strength and stay
the succour which I crave:
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy suppliant heares,
that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark most high.

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert:
That speak right faire unto their friends,
but think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed:
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods work,
his law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint
that heard so willingly?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse:
My hope, my help, my hearts reliefe;
my song shall him confesse.
He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord blesse, guide and preserve:
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

PSAL. XXIX. T.S.

GIVE to the Lord ye Potentates,
ye Rulers of the world:
Give ye all praise, honour and strength unto the living Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his Majesty,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all:
even as himself doth please;

He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force;
and wondrous excellent
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees so long:
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leap like as a Calf;
or els the Unicorne:
Not only trees, but mountaines great,
whereon the trees are borne.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
8 It makes the desert quake for feare;
that called is Cades.
9 It makes the Hindes for fear to calve;
and makes the coverts plaine:
Then in his Temple every man
his glory doth proclaime.

10 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reigne as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.
11 The Lord will give his people power;
in a vertue to increase:
The Lord will blesse his chosen flock with everlasting peace.

PSAL. XXX. I.H.

ALL laud and praise with heart & voice
O Lord I give to thee:
Which didst not make my foes rejoyce,
but hast exalted me.
2 O Lord my God to thee I cri'd
in all my pain and griefe:
Thou gav'st an eare and didst provide to ease me with reliefe.

3 Of thy good will thou hast cald back
my soule from hell to save:
Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and keptst me from the grave.
4 Sing praise ye Saints that prove and see
the goodnesse of the Lord:
In memory of his Majesty
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last and slack againe:
But in his favour and his grace
alwaies doth life remaine.
Though gripes of grief and pangs full fore
shall lodge with us all night:
The Lord to joy shall us restore before the day be light.

- 6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:
Tush, I am sure to feele none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
- 7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'st away thy face,
my minde was sore dismayd.
- 8 Wherefore againe yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.
- 9 What gaine is in my blood (said I)
if death destroy my daies?
Doth dust declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?
- 10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord I thee desire:
Do not this simple soule forsake,
of help I thee require.
- 11 Then didst thou turn my grief & woe
into a chearfull voice:
The mourning weed thou took'st me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.
- 12 Wherefore my soule uncessantly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwaies.

PSAL. XXXI. IH.

- O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just deliver me,
and set me quit from blame.
- 2 Heare me O God, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my sence in time of need.
- 3 For why? as stones thy strength is tri'd,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
and leade me in thy power.
- 4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare,
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.
- 5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my spirit which is thy due:
For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
- 6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
- 7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:

- Thou seest when ought would me annoy
and know'st my soule full well.
- 8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me over-charge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second Part.

- 9 Great griefe O Lord doth me assaile,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth faile
my womb for woe doth ake.
- 10 My life is worn with grief and paine,
my yeares in wo are past:
My strength is gone, & through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.
- 11 Among my foes I am a scorne,
my friends are all dismayd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen borne to see me are afraid.
- 12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.
- 13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my minde did fray:
How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.
- 14 But Lord I trust in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod:
For I confesse and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.
- 15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.
- 16 To me thy servant (Lord) expresse,
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me Lord for thy goodnesse,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

- 17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare the shame,
and into their grave fall.
- 18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright,
which are addit to lies:
And cruelly with pride and spight against the just devise.
- 19 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid up full safe for them:
That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men! (guide)
- 20 Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace so farret
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.
22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was fore oppress'd Lo I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
23 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be strong and God wil stay your heart,
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye in him do trust.

PSAL. XXXII. T.S.

THe man is blest whose wickednesse
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sin and wickednesse
is hid and also covered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and contraint:
My bones did weare and waste away
with daily mone and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my bloud and humours moist
to drinesse did convert.

5 I did therefore confesse my faults,
and all my sins discover,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my finnes passe over.
6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compasse me about:
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach,
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide, as I my self have learn'd by prooffe and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a seine or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustaine:
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodnesse shall remaine.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect hearts,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

PSAL. XXXII. I.H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankfull voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in Psalmes and pleasant things:
With Lute, and instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new with courage give him praise:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his waies.
5 To judgement, equity and right
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone,
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one his breath to passe hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heapes within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
feare God and keep his law,
Ye that inhabit in each coast
dread him and stand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second Part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth chuse of meere accord,
to take them as his own.
13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight,
on men mortall by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
16 A King that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troupes of horsemen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not prevaile,
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo the eyes of God intend,
and watch to aid the just:
With such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.

19 That he of death and great distresse,
may set their soules from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soule in God hath joy and game, rejoycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSAL. XXXIV. T.S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwaies:
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speake unto his praise.
2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soule and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortifi'd
may heare and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord:
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.

4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
he answered me againe:
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my feare and paine.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most cleare,
Their countenance shall not be dash'd,
they need it not to feare.

6 This silly wretch for some reliefe unto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place:
To save all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just:
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones;
above all earthly thing:
For they that feare the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.
10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second Part.

11 Come neare therefore my children deare
and to my words give eare:
I shall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should feare.

12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a blessed life?

13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent:
His eares likewise do heare the plaint
of the poore innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his browes
upon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remaine.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of paine and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde and straight at hand
to such as be contrite:

He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poore and meeke in spite.

19 Full many be the miseries,
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway:
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himselfe hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But

22 But they that feare the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSAL. XXXV. I.H.

Lord plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all those that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the speare and shield,
thy self in armour dresse:
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou unto my soule maist say,
lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame
that seek my soule to spill:
Let them turn back and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as winde doth drive the dust:
And that the Angel of our God
their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their waies be void of light, and slippery like to fall:
And send thine Angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have in secret set their grin:
And for no cause have dig'd a cave
to take my soule therein.
8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trap in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soule with heart and voice
in God have joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may rejoyce,
and in his saving health.

10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree:
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The second Part.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoile and do them wrong.

12 My cruell foes against me rise,
to witnesse things untrue,
And to accuse me they devise,
of things I never knew,

13 Where I to them did owe good wil,
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth fore complaine.

14 When they were sick I mourn'd there-and clad my selfe in sack: (fore,
With fasting I did faint full fore,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had been my brethren deare
I did my selfe behave:
As one that maketh wofull cheare
about his mothers grave.

16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea at joest slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.

17 The belly-gods and flattering traine
that all good things deride:
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouthes aside.

18 Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soule, mine onely deare,
out of these Lions clawes.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee;
before the Church alwaies:
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevaile on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turne their eyes,
that causlesse me assault.

The third Part.

21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they scerne:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

23 But Lord, thou seest what waies they cease not my griefs to mend: (take,
Be not farre off, nor me forsake,
as men that faile their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to my righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:
And let them not their pride expresse,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry
there, there, all goeth trim:
Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.

- 27 Confound them with rebuke & shame
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spite & blame,
that brag at me with scorn.
- 28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice,
shall praise the Lord, and say,
- 29 Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
- 30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise:
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwaies.

PSAL. XXXVI. I.H.

- THe wicked with his works unjust,
doth thus perswade his heart:
That of the Lord he hath no trust
his feare is set apart.
- 2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began:
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
- 3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
- 4 When he should sleepe then doth he his mischiefs to fulfill: (muse)
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
- 5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend
above the heavens hie,
So doth thy truth it selfe extend unto the cloudie skie.
- 6 Much more than hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest:
Thy judgements like to seas most deep,
thou sav'st both man and beast.
- 7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the founnes of men shall dwell.
- 8 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
- 9 For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
- 10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and shew
to men of upright heart.

- 11 Let not the proud on me prevaile;
O Lord of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assaile,
to throw me out of place.
- 12 But they in their device shall fall,
that wicked works maintaine:
They shall be overthrown withall,
and never rise againe.

PSAL. XXXVII. W.W.

- GRudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet envy such as to ill,
have bent and set their will.
- 2 For as greene grasle and flourishing
are cut and wither away: (herbes)
So shall their great prosperity
soone passe, fade and decay.
- 3 Trust thou therefore in God alone;
to do well give thy minde:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
- 4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.
- 5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires
on God with perfect trust:
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and just.
- 6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the Sun even at noone daies,
shall not shine halfe so bright.
- 7 Be still therefore and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then:
Not shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.
- 8 Shake off despight, envy and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked works avoid and flee
and follow not their guise.
- 9 For every wicked man will God
destroy both more and lesse:
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to possesse.
- 10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see
no more the wicked traine:
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remaine.

The second Part.

- 11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land:
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.
- 12 The lewd men and malicious,
again

against the iust conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him as men which do his bane desire.

13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn:
For why, he sees the terme approach,
when they shall sigh and mourne.

14 The wicked have their swords out-their bowe eke have they bent: (drawn,
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pierce their which was to kill the iust: (heart, Likewise the bowe shall break to shivers
wherein they put their trust.

16 Doubtlesse the iust mans poore estate is better a great deale more:
Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pompe and heaped store.

17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.

18 He sees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way:
And will give them inheritance,
which never shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard beset:
When other shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be glad and fed.

20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shall quaille, yea melt even as lambs greas
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

21 Behold the wicked borrowes much,
and never paies againe:
Whereas the iust by liberall gifts,
makes many glad and faine.

22 For they whom God doth blesse shall the land for heritage. (have
And they whom he doth curse likewise shall perishe in his rage.

23 The Lord the iust mans waies doth and gives him good successe: (guide,
To every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good address.

24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure not utterly to quaille:
Because the Lord puts out his hand,
at need and doth not faile.

25 I have beene young and now am old,
yet did I never see:
The iust man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery,

26 But gives alwaies most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity receive of God their meed.

27 Flee vice therefore and wickednesse,
and vertue do embrace:
So shall God grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place.

28 For God so loveth equity,
and shewes to his such graces
That he preserveth them alway:
but stroyes the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land:
Having as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.

30 The iust mans mouth doth ever speake
of matters wise and hie:
His tongue doth talke to edifie,
with truth and equity.

31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.

32 The wicked like a ravening wolfe,
the iust man doth beset:
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

33 Though he should fall into his hands
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroid these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree:
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell-tree.

36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the iust man shall have at length great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroid they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

39 But the salvation of the iust
doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them aid

of his meere grace and love.
 40 God doth them help, save and deliver from lewd men and unjust:
 And still will save them whilst that they
 in him do put their trust.

PSAL. XX XVIII. I.H.

Put me not to rebuke O Lord,
 in thy provoked ire:
 Ne in thy heavy wrath O Lord,
 correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrowes do stick fast in me
 thy hand doth presse me sore;
 And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am int
 Nor my rest is in my bones,
 by reason of my sin.
 4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
 above my head are gone:
 A greater load than I can beare,
 they lie me sore upon.

5 My woundes stink and are festred for
 as loathsome is to see:
 Which all through mine own foolishnes
 betideth unto me.

6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse:
 That I go wailing all the day
 in dolefull heavinesse.

7 My loynes are fil'd with sore disease,
 my flesh hath no whole part:

8 I feeble am and broken sore,
 I roare for griefe of heart.

9 Thou know'st (Lord) my desire, my are open in thy sight. (groans)

10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light. (faile)

11 My lovers and my wonted friends stand looking on my woe:

And eke my kinsmen farre away
 are me departed fro.

12 They that did seek my life, laid snares,
 and they that sought the way
 To do me hurt, spake lies and thought on mischiefes all the day.

The second Part.

13 But as a deafe man I became,
 that cannot heare at all:

14 And as one dumbe, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

15 For all my confidence O Lord
 is wholly set on thee:

O Lord thou Lord that art my God,
 thou shalt give care to me.

16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.

17 And truly I poore wretch am set in place, a wofull wight:

And eke my grievous heavinesse
 is ever in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickednesse
 in humble wise confesse:

And while I for my sinfull deeds,
 my sorrowes do expresse.

19 My foes do still remaine alive;
 and mighty are also:

And they that hate me wrongfully,
 in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good with evill do repay:

Because that good and honest things
 I do ensue away.

21 Forake me not, O Lord my God;
 be thou not farre away:

22 Haste me to help, my Lord, my God,
 my safety and my stay.

PSAL. XXXIX. I.H.

I Said I will look to my waies;
 for feare I should go wrong:
 I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast
 my mouth with force and might:
 Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake no words;
 but kept me close and still:

Yea from good talk I did refraine,
 but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my brest;
 with musing, thought, and doubt:
 Which did increase and stirre the fire;
 at last these words burst out.

5 Lord number out my life and daies
 which yet I have not past:

So that I may be certifi'd,
 how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life;
 in length much like a span:

Mine age is nothing unto thee,
 so vaine is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
 in vaine him selfe annoy:

In getting goods and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord sith things this wise do frame
 what help do I desire?

Of truch my help doth hang on thee,
 I nothing else require.

The second Part.

5 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand:

And make me not a scorne to fooles
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumbe, and to complaine
no trouble might me move:

Because I knew it was thy work
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand: (plague,

I faint and pine away for feare
of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan:

As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vaine a thing is man.

13 Lord heare my suit, and give good heed regard my teares that fall:

I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore:

Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

PSAL XL. I.H.

I Waited long and sought the Lord;
and patiently did beare:

At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to heare.

2 He pluck'd me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay:

And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Psalme of praise,
which I must shew abroad:

And sing new songs of thanks alwaies unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see
as people much afraid:

Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remaine:

That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and faine.

6 For Lord may God thy wondrous deeds
in greatnesse far do passe:

Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show:

To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offrings thou delightst not in,

I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all:

But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine eares to heare withall.

10 But then said I, behold and look;
I come a meane to be:

For in the volume of thy book
thus it is said of me.

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy minde,
which thing doth like me well:

For in my heart thy law I finde,
fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts Itell:

Behold my tongue no time doth cease
O Lord thou know'st full well.

The second Part.

13 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodnesse as by stealth:

But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving minde;
that no man should it know:

The trust that in thy truth I finde,
to all the Church I show.

15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me withdraw thou not away,

But let thy love and verity preserve me still for aye.

16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:

My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the haire upon my head:

My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord I thee require:

Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord at my desire.

19 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame;
that seek my soule to spill:

Drive back my foes, and them defame,
that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill feats do them describe,
that would deface my name:

Alwaies at me they raile and cry,
sie on him, sie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee alwaies:

That those that love thy saving health,
may

- may ſay, to God be praiſe.
 22 But as for me, I am but poore, oppreſt and brought full low:
 Yet thou O Lord wilt me reſtore
 to health full well I know.
 23 For why thou art my hope and truſt,
 my refuge, help and ſtay:
 Wherefore my God, as thou art juſt,
 with me no time delay.

PSAL. XLI. T.S.

THe man is bleſt that carefull is,
 the needy to conſider:
 For in the ſeaſon perillous
 the Lord will him deliver.
 2 The Lord will make him ſafe & ſound,
 and happy in the land:
 And he will not deliver him
 into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies ſick,
 the Lord will him reſtore:
 And thou O Lord wilt turne to health
 his ſickneſſe and his ſore.
 4 Then in my ſickneſſe thus ſaid I,
 have mercy Lord on me:
 And heale my ſoule, which is full wo,
 that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wiſh'd me ill in heart,
 and thus of me did ſay:
 When ſhall he die, that all his name,
 may vaniſh quite away?
 6 And when they come to viſit me,
 they ask if I do well:
 But in their hearts miſchief they hatch,
 and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whiſper ſo,
 as though they would me charm:
 And caſt their fetches how to trap
 me with ſome deadly harm.
 8 Some grievous ſin hath brought him to this ſickneſſe ſay they plain:
 He is ſo low, that without doubt
 riſe can he not againe.

9 The man alſo that I did truſt,
 with me did uſe deceit:
 Who at my table eat my bread,
 the ſame for me laid wait.
 10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
 and let me be preserv'd:
 That I may render unto them
 the things they have deſerv'd.

11 By this I know assuredly to be belov'd of thee:
 When that mine enemies have no cauſe
 to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou haſt me kept
 and maintained alway:
 And in thy preſence place aſſign'd
 where I ſhall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Iſrael
 be praiſed evermore,
 Even ſo be it (Lord) will I ſay;
 even ſo be it therefore,

PSAL. XLII. I.H.

Like as the Hart doth breath & bray
 the well-ſprings to obtaine:
 So doth my ſoule deſire alway,
 with thee Lord to remaine.
 2 My ſoule doth thiſt, and would draw the living God of might: (neare)
 O when ſhall I come and appeare
 in preſence of his ſight?

3 The teares all times are my repaſt,
 which from mine eyes do ſlide:
 When wicked men cry out ſo faſt,
 where now is God thy guide?
 4 Alas what grief is it to think what freedome once I had?
 Therefore my ſoule, as at pits brink,
 moſt heavie is and ſad.

When I did march in good aray,
 furniſhed with my traine:
 Unto the Temple was our way,
 with ſongs and hearts moſt faine.
 5 My ſoule why art thou ſad alwaies,
 and ſetſt thus in my breaſt?
 Truſt ſtill in God, for him to praiſe:
 I hold it ever beſt.

By him I have ſuccour at need,
 againſt all paine and grief:
 He is my God which with all ſpeed
 will haſte to ſend relief.
 6 And thus my ſoule within me Lord, doth ſaint to thinke upon
 The land of Jordan and record
 the little hill Hermon.

The ſecond Part.

7 One grief another in doth call
 as clouds burſt out their voices:
 The ſouds of evil that do fall,
 run over me with noiſe.
 8 Yet I by day felt his goodneſſe,
 and help at all aſſaies:
 Liſewiſe by night I did not ceaſe
 the living God to praiſe.

9 I am perſwaded thus to ſay
 to him with pure pretence:
 O Lord thou art my guide and ſtay,
 my rock and ſure defence,
 Why do I then in penſivenelle, hanging

hanging the head thus walk?
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and vex me with their talke.

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soule with paine oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy self assaile,
so sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies, and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

PSAL. XLIII. I.H.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why puttst thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheare:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and farest thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwaies best.

6 By him I have deliverance against all paine and grief:
He is my God which doth alwaies
at need send me reliefe.

PSAL. XLIV. T.S.

O ur eares have heard our fathers tell and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in alder time O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out and stroidst them with strong hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor the land of thy behest: (strength,
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,

because thou lov'dst them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise:
5 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise. (such

6 I trusted not in bowe nor sword,
they could not save me sound:
7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:
9 Yet now thou go'st not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were over-trod:
Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our goods
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slaine:
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remaine.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing stock:
And those that sound about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second Part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:
They mock, they scorn, they nod their where ere they go or walk. (heads

15 I am ashamed continually to heare these wicked men:
Yea so I blush that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we heare such slanderous such false reports and lies: (words That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turne not back our hearts from nor yet thy paths forsake. (these 19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,

where dens of dragons be:
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of Idols sought, (our?

21 Would not God then have tri'd this for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake O Lord, alwaies are we slaine thus:

- As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deale with us.
23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou? awake
and leave us not for all:
24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall.
25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly like as it were gla'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodnesse,
to rescue us with speed.

PSAL. XLV. I.H.

- MY heart doth take in hand,
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein pertaineth to the King.
2 My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that ueth fast to write.
3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for ever to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renown
thy person pure is deckt.
5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
6 Thine arrowes sharp, and keen their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneele to thee,
yea all thy foes O King.
7 Thy royall seat O Lord,
for ever shall remaine:
Because the Scepter of thy Realme
doth righteousness maintaine.
8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest:
God even thy God hathointed thee
with joy above the rest.
9 With myrrhe and favours sweet thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace passe,
therein to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the Queene doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second Part.

- 11 O daughter take good heed:
incline and give good eare:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most deare.
12 Then shall the King desire thy beauty faire and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
13 The daughters then of Tyre
with gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beate gold.
15 In robes well wrought with needles,
and many a pleasant thing:
With Virgins faire on her to wait,
she cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on every side:
Into the palace of the King,
and there they do abide.
17 In stead of parents left,
(O Queene the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou mayst
as Princes in all lands. (see) 18 Wherefore thy holy Name,
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore O Lord.

PSAL. XLVI. I.H.

- THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismayd
he is our help at hand. (see) 2 Though th'earth remove we will not though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep:
3 No though the waves do rage so fore,
that all the banks it spils:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one faire foud doth send abroad,
his pleasant streames apace:
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place.
5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell:
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell,
the Lord will truly slay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdomes feare,
the people make a noise:

The

The earth doth melt, and not appeare,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
8 Come hear & see with minde & thought
the working of our God:
What wonders he him selfe hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are hushd and gone;
which countries did conspire:
Their bowes he brake, & speares each one
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend;
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

PSAL. XLVII. I.H.

YE people all with one accord,
clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.
4 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his well-beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high;
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie,
with trumpets royall voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skillfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen raignes, and sits upon his holy throne:
The Princes of the people have them joynd every one 9 To Abrahams people, for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSAL. XLVIII. I.H.

Great is the Lord, & with great praise
to be advanced still:
Within the City of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place;
it gladdeth all the land:
The City of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge knowne:
For lo the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it fo, they wondred and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with feare.

5 Great terror there on them did he,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travell by and by.
6 As thou with Eastern winde the ships
upon the sea dost break,
So they were stroid, and even as we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the City of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:
Yea in the City which our God
for ever will uphold 8 O Lord we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy Name for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousness alwaies.
10 Let for thy judgements Sion Mount fulfilled be with joyes:
And eke of Juda grant O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a row.
12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all;
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

PSAL. XLIX. I.H.

All people hearken and give eare
to that that I shall tell:

- Both high and low, both rich and poore
that in the world do dwell.
For why? any mouth shal make discourse
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.
- I will incline mine eares to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtfull speech
in meter on my harp.
- Why should I feare affliction,
or any carefull toile:
Or else my foes which at my heeles
are prest my life to spoile.
- For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast.
- There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death redeem:
Or that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.
- It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attaine:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remaine.
- They see wise men as well as fooles,
subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.
- Their care is to build houses faire,
and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth,
for ever to endure.
- Yet shall no man alwaies enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest:
But shall at length taste of deaths cup
as well as the brute beast.

The second Part.

- And though they try their foolish to be most lewd and vaine: (thoughts
Their children yet approve their talk and in like sin remaine.
- As sheep into the fold are brought so shall they into grave:
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the iust shall Lordship have.

Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay:
When as from house to pit they passe,
with wo and weale away.

But God will surely preserve me
from death and endlesse paine:
Because he will of his good grace,
my soule receive againe.

- If any man waxe wondrous rich,

feare not I say therefore:
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

For when he dies of all these things
nothing shall he receive:
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

Yet in this life he takes himselfe
the happiest under Sun:
And others likewise flatter him,
saying all is well done.

And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old:
Yet must he needs at length give place;
and be brought to deaths fold.

Thus man to honour God hath brought yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts so doth he live
which turn to dust and powder.

PSAL. L. W.W.

The mighty God,
th' eternal hath thus spoke:
And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West:

From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appeare
in beauty most excellent:
Our God will come
before that long time be spent:

Devouring fire
shall go before his face:
A great tempest
shall round about him trace:

Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right.

Saying, go to,
and now my Saints assemble:
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble:

The heavens shall declare his righteousness;
For God is Judge
of all things more and lesse.

Hearre my people,
for I will now reveale:
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceale:
Thy God, thy God
and I and will not blame thee;

For giving not
all manner offerings to me,

9. I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or Calfe out of thy stall 10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:
On thousand hills
cattell are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaines:
All beasts are mine,
which haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
13 Eat I the flesh
of great Bulls or Bullocks?
Or drink the bloud
of Goats, and of the flocks?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving:
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.

15 Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt bee:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wicked,
thus saith th'Eternall God:
Why dost thou preach
my lawes and hefts abroad?
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hat'st to be
by discipline reformed.

My words I say,
thou dost reject and hate.
18 If that thou see a thiefe as with thy mate, Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey do seek:
And art all one
with bawds and ruffians eke.
19 Thou giv'st thy selfe
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.

20. Thou sitt'st musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers sonne to shame.
21. These things thou didst and whilst I held my tongue, Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy selfe:
yet though I kept long silence:
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22. Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord:
And feare not when
he threatneth with his word,
Left without help
I spoile you as a prey:
23 But he that thanks
offer'th, praiseth me aye:
Saith the Loyd God,
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by L.H.

THe God of gods, the Lord,
hath cal'd the earth by names:
From whence the Sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.
1 From Sion his faire place,
his glory bright and cleare,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

2 Our God shall come in haste,
to speake he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
3 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth, to judge and trie:
his folk he doth devise.
4 Bring forth my Saints, saith he,
my faithfull flock so deare:
Which are in band and league with me:
my law to love and feare.
5 And when these things are tride,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

6 My people O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
7 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me much more then I do lack.

8 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattell young or old?
Or els so much delight to feed
on Goats out of thy fold?
9 Nay, all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wilde on the hills.

The second Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight;

And

And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.
13 Then though I hungered sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To Bulls flesh have I minde,
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I finde,
the blood of Goats to drink?
14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows alwaies unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame:
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou maist praise my Name.
16 But to the wicked traine,
which talk of God each day:
And yet their works are foule and vaine
to them the Lord will say,

17 With what face darest thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow?
thy deeds deny the same.
18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behinde thy back.

The third Part.

19 When thou a thief dost see,
by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runst and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
20 When thou dost them behold,
that wives and maids defile:
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou dost apply,
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers sonne most deare.

23 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
24 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.

25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in minde?
Left when I plague you in mine ire?
your help be far to finde.
26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well: and he shall see
to walk in godly waies.

PSAL. LI. W.W.

O Lord consider my distresse,
and now with speed some pity take:
My sins deface, my faults redresse,
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.
2 Wash me O Lord, and make me cleane
from this unjust and sinfull act:
And purifie yet once againe
my hainous crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow do constraine me to acknowledge mine excesses:
My sin alas doth still remaine
before my face without release.
4 For thee alone I have offended, committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgements just & right.

5 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Also behold Lord thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.

7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord such joy me sends,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespass.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my brest,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant Spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second Part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face:
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy Spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those joyes againe,
which I was wont in thee to finde.

And

And let me thy free Spirit retaine,
which unto thee may stir my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:

And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall see sin.

14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgive me this my bloody vice:

My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord which art the only key:

And then my mouth shall testify,
thy wondrous works and praise alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:

But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.

17 The heavy heart, the minde oppress,
O Lord thou never dost reject:

And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th'effect.

18 Lord unto Sion turne thy face,
powre out thy mercies on thy hill:

And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the wals and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings
of peace and righteousness I say:

Yea calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by T. S.

HAve mercy on me Lord after,
thy great abounding graces
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.

2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:

For I do know my faults, and still my sin is in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:

And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face.

4 That in the things that thou hast done upright thou maist be tri'd:

And eke in judging that the doome
may passe upon thy side.

5 Behold in wickednesse my kinde,
and shape I did receive.

And lo my sinfull mother eke
in sin did me conceive.

6 But lo the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee:

And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:

Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me
to heare the pleasant voice:

That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sins
Lord turne away thy face:

And all my deeds of wickednesse
do utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:

And eke within my bowels Lord,
renew a stable sprite.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:

The comfort of thy saving health give me againe I pray.

12 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore:

Sinners thy waies, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second Part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:

That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unclose:

The praises of thy Majesty
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:

But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice:
delightfull in Gods eyes:

A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall

Grant that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall.

18 Burnt offerings, gifts and sacrifice of justice in that day

Thou shalt accept, and eke as they shall upon thine altar lay.

PSAL. LII. I.H.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?

Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwaies?

3 Why doth thy minde yet still devise such

- such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a razour sharpe.
- 3 On mischief why settst thou thy minde,
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
than bring the truth to light.
- 4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, bloud and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile
O false deceitfull tongue.
- 5 Therefore shall God for aye confound:
and pluck thee from thy place:
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.
- 6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with feare will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord:
- 7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
- 8 But I as Olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.
- 9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy Name alwaies, wherein thy Saints rejoyce.

PSAL. LIII. T.S.

- THe foolish man in that which he wichin his heart hath said:
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denaid.
- 2 They are corrupt, and they also
a halnous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.
- 3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.
- 4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.
- 5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.
- 6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismayd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

- 7 For God his boines that thee besieg'd,
hath scatterd all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.
- 8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.
- 9 When God his people shall restore,
that erst were captive lad:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. LIV. I.H.

- GOD save me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodnesse sake:
Unto the strength (Lord) of the same,
I do my cause betake.
- 2 Regard O Lord and give an eare
to me when I do pray:
Bow down thy self to me and heare
the words that I do say.
- 3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soule to spill.
- 4 But lo my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soule is staid,
the Lord doth ever stand.
- 5 With plagues repay againe all those
for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
- 6 An offering of free heart and will;
then I to thee shall make:
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.
- 7 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

PSAL. LV. I.H.

- O God give eare and do apply,
to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy selfe away.
- 2 Take heed to me, grant my request
and answer me againe:
With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great griefe doth me constrain.
- 3 Because my foes with threats and cries,
oppress

oppresse me through despight:
And to the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.
4 For they in counsell do conspire,
to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest:
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unreit.
6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horrorwhelmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.

7 But I did say, who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some faire Dove, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things.
8 Lo then I would go farre away,
to flee I would not cease:
And I would hide my selfe and stay
in some great wildernesse.

9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behinde,
That I were quit and overpast
these blaits of boisterous winde.
10 Divide them Lord & from them pull their devillish double tongue:
For I have spide their city full of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day do close her as a wall: (throughout
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plaine,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remaine
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
some where I could me hide.
14 But thou it wast, my fellow deare,
which friendship didst pretend:
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walk,
within the house of God.
16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischiefes raigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.
18 At morning, noone, and evening tide,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet;
though warre be now at hand,
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first and last doth raiga
both now and evermore:
Will heare when I to him complaine,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do feare the Lord. (hands 22 Upon their friends they laid their which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to negle& the bands,
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they have war within their
as butter are their words: (hearts) Although their words were smooth as they cut as sharp as swords. (oyles) 24 Calt thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the iust in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit;
that thirst for blood alwaies:
He will no guilefull man permit
to live out halfe his daies.
26 Though such be quite destroid & gone
in thee O Lord I trust:
I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

PSAL. LVI. I.H.

HAve mercy Lord on me I pray;
for man would me deuore:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rife,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I do minde and praise;
O Lord I stick to thee:

I do not care at all ſaffaires,
what fleſh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or ſpake,
they wreſt them at their will:

And all the counſell that they take,
is how to work me ill.

6 They all conſent themſelves to hide,
cloſe watch for me to lay:

They ſpie my paths, and ſnares have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus ſcape on miſchief ſet?
thou God on them wilt frown:

For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdomes down.

8 Thou ſeeſt how oft they made me flee,
and on my teares doſt look:

Reſerve them in a glaſſe by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do ſtart:

I well perceive it by the ſame,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the Word of God,
to praiſe it I accord:

With joy I will declare abroad
the promiſe of the Lord.

11 I truſt in God, and yet I ſay,
as I before began:

The Lord he is my help and ſtay,
I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart ſo free,
to God my vowes alwaies:

And I O Lord all times to thee
will offer thanks and praiſe.

13 My ſoule from death thou deſt defend and keepſt my feet upright:

That I before thee may aſcend,
with ſuch as live in light.

PSAL. LVII. I.H.

Take pitie for thy promiſe ſake,
have mercy Lord on me:

For why? my ſoule doth her betake unto the help of thee.

2 Within the ſhadow of thy wings,
I ſet my ſelfe full faſt:

Till miſchiefe, malice, and like things
be gone and over-paſt.

3 I call upon the God moſt high,
to whom I ſtick and ſtand:

I meane the God that will ſtand by the cauſe I have in hand.

4 From heaven he hath ſent his aid,
to ſave me from their ſpight,

That to devour me have afraid,
his mercy, truth, and might.

5 I lead my life with Lions ſell;
all ſet on wrath and ire:

And with ſuch wicked men I dwell;
that fret like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are ſpeares & arrowes long;
as ſharpe as I have ſeen: (tongues)

They wound and cut with their quick like ſwords and weapons keen.

7 Set up and ſhew thy ſelfe O God,
above the heavens bright:

Exalt thy praiſe on earth abroad,
thy Maieſty and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:

Wherein they think my ſoule to ſnare;
but they are ſalne in it.

9 My heart is ſet to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwaies:

My heart I ſay doth well accord
to ſing his laud and praiſe.

10 Awake my joy, awake I ſay,
my Lute, my Harp, and ſtrings:

For I my ſelfe before the day,
will riſe, rejoyce, and ſing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodneſſe of my God:

And ſhew his praiſe that doth excell
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as farre
as heavens all are high:

His truth as high as any ſtarre,
that ſhineth in the ſkie.

13 Set forth and ſhew thy ſelfe O God,
above the heavens bright:

Extoll thy praiſe on earth abroad,
thy Maieſty and might.

PSAL. LVIII. I.H.

YE Rulers that are put in truſt,
to judge of wrong and right:
Be all your judgements true and juſt;
not knowing meed or might?

1 Nay in your hearts ye mark and muſe
in miſchiefe to conſent:

And where ye ſhould true juſtice uſe,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked ſort from their birth-day
have erred on this wiſe:

And from their mothers wombe alway
have uſed craft and lies.

4 In them the poiſon and the breath
of Serpents do appeare:

Yea like the Adder that is deafe,
and faſt doth ſtop her eare.

5 Becauſe ſhe will not heare the voice of one that charmeth well:

No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouthes throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones
like Lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forthright:
The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the Sun.

9 Before the thornes that now are yong,
to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.
10 The iust shall joy, it doth them good,
that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in bloud
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth & tell that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

PSAL. LIX. I.H.

Send aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord preserve me from those men, whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo they wait my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run, and do themselves prepare,
when I go whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel, arise and strike all lands:
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their mischief stands.

6 At night they stir and seek about,
as hounds they houle and grin:
And all the City cleane throughout
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips were swords:
They greed my death, & then would say,
what? none doth heare our words.

8 But Lord thou hast their waies espide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes with-
O Lord doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to mee.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart doth will.

The second Part.

11 Destroy them not at once O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words & truthlesse tongue
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord,
that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout y world that Jacobs God doth raigne.

14 At evening they run apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad;
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all affaires.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me
O Lord I sing to thee: (Haid)
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

PSAL. LX. I.H.

O Lord thou didst us cleane forsake,
and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to us O God.

2 Thy might did move the earth so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

4. But

- 4 But yet to such as feare thy Name,
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.
- 5 So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.
- 6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale:
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.
- 7 Gilead is given to mine hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda guide.
- 8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine oughtst to seek for favour me unto.
- 9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the City strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?
- 10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land and coasts?
Our wars in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.
- 11 Give aid O Lord and us relieve from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vaine. (might)
- 12 But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

PSAL. LXI. I.H.

- Regard O Lord, for I complaine,
and make my suit to thee:
Let not my words return in vaine,
but give an eare to me.
- 2 From out the coasts and utmost parts,
of all the earth abroad:
In griefe and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.
- 3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my wofull minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my sence against my foes.
- 4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.
- 5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:

- With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that feare his Name.
- 6 The King shall he in health maintaine,
and so prolong his daies:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
in royall state alwaies.
- 7 That he may have a dwelling place
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, truth and grace defend him from decay.
- 8 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praise unto thy Name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSAL. LXII. I.H.

- My soul to God shal give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
- 2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aide:
He is my stay that no pretence shall make me much dismayd.
- 3 O wicked folk how long will ye use craft? sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
- 4 Whom God doth love ye seek alwaies
to put him to the worse:
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
- 5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend on God my chiefe desire:
From all ill feats me to defend,
none but him I require.
- 6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me that no power
can move me out of place.
- 7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my only trust.
- 8 O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him, and say,
our trust is in the Lord.
- 9 The sons of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a sleight:
With things most vain do them compare for they can keep no weight.
- 10 Trust not in wrōg, robbery, nor stealth,
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in, wealth
set not your hearts thereon.
- 11 The

11 The Lord long since one thing did tel, which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good & kinde, thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

PSAL. LXIII. I.H.

O God my God I watch betime,
to come to thee in haste:
For why? my soule and body both do thirst of thee to taste.
And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none:
My flesh is parch'd for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

2 That I might see yet once againe thy glory, strength and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
within thy Temple bright.
3 For why? thy mercies farre surmount
this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud, and praise.

4 And whilst I live I will not faile
to worship thee alway:
And in thy Name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soule is fild as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.

6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tide:
7 For under covert of thy wings
thou art my joyfull guide.
8 My soule doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power.
9 And those that seek my soule to stroy,
them death shall soon deuoure.

10 The sword shall them deuour each one;
their carcases shall feed
The hungry foxes which do run their prey to seek at need.
11 The King and all men shall rejoyce,
that do professe Gods Word:
For lyars mouthes shall then be stopt,
which have the truth disturb'd.

PSAL. LXIII. I.H.

O Lord unto my voice give eare,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soule from feare
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men
that in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill feats do work.

3 Who whet their tongues as we have seen men whet and sharp their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrowes keen,
I mean most bitter words.
4 With privy sleights shoot they their
the upright man to hit: (shafts)
The just unwares to strike by craft,
they care or feare no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed;
in counsell thus they cry:
To use deceit let us not dread,
what? who can it espie?
6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevaile;
when they think least upon:
God with his dart shall sure assaile,
and wound them every one.
8 Their crafts & their ill tongues withall shall work themselves such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well that God the thing hath wrought:
And praise his mighty works and tell what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with minde and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

PSAL. LXV. I.H.

Thy praise alone O Lord doth raigne
in Sion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintaine,
and their behests fulfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers heare;
and dost thereto agree:
The people all both farre and neare
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But Lord forgive our great misdeeds;
and purge us from our sin.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse
within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and Temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great justice heare us God;
our health of thee doth rise;

The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou mak'st the mountaines strong and to stand in every shower. (flow)

7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage, and make their streames full still:
Thou dost reſtraine the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folk that dwell full far on earth,
ſhall dread thy ſignes to ſee,
Which morn and evening in great mirth
do paſſe with praiſe to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and drie,
and thirſteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou doſt apply,
and much increaſe her ſtore.
10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and ſo doth cauſe to ſpring
The ſeed and corn which men do ſowe,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou doſt her furrowes fill,
whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou doſt diſtill,
and bleſſe her fruit withall.
12 Thou deck'ſt the earth of thy good with faire and pleaſant crop: (grace, Thy clouds diſtill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop.

13 Whereby the deſert ſhall begin full great increaſe to bring:
The little hills ſhall joy therein,
much fruit in them ſhall ſpring.
14 In places plaine the ſtocks ſhall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with come ſhall ſo exceed,
that men ſhall ſing for mirth.

PSAL. LXVI. I.H.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce,
with praiſe ſet forth his Name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the ſame.

2 How wonderfull O Lord ſay ye,
in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for feare ſhall ſeek to thee,
full fore againſt their heart.

3 All men that dwell y^e earth throughout ſhall praiſe the Name of God:
The laud thereof the world about is ſhew'd and ſet abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and ſee
what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to paſſe hath brought.

5 He laid the ſea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had:
On foot to paſſe both faire and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All ſuch as would him diſobey,
by him ſhall be controld.

7 Ye people give unto our God,
due laud and thanks alwaies:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and ſing unto his praiſe.

8 Which doth endue our ſoul with life,
and it preſerve withall:
He ſtayes our feet, ſo that no ſtrife
can make us ſlip or fall.

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with if that they will abide: (fire)
As workmen do when they deſire
to have their metals tride.
10 Although thou ſuffer us ſo long
in priſon to be caſt:
And there with chaines and fetters ſtrong
to lie in bondage caſt.

The ſecond Part.

11 Although (I ſay) thou ſuffer men
on us to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water run of very griefe and paine.

12 Yet ſure thou doſt of thy good grace
diſpoſe it to the beſt:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and reſt.

13 Unto thy houſe reſort will I to offer and to pray:
And there I will my ſelf apply
my vowes to thee to pay.

14 The vowes that with my mouth I ſpake
in all my griefe and ſmart:
The vowes I ſay which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee,
of Oxen fat and Rams:

Yea this my ſacrifice ſhall be,
of Bullocks, Goats and Lambs.

16 Come forth and hearken here full ſoone
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore ſoul hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make ſpeed apace,
to praiſe him by and by.

18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to ſinne,
God will not heare my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
20 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

PSAL. LXVII. T.S.

HAve mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy graces
To shew to us do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.
3 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth & right dost guide,
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke withall.
7 God shall us blesse I say,
and then both farre and neare,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in feare.

PSAL. LXVIII. T.S.

Let God arise and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
2 And as the fire doth melt the waxe,
and winde blowes smoke away:
So in the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.
3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily rejoyce:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearfull in their voice.
4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above,
within his holy place:
That Father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.
6 Houses he gives and issue both,
unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thralldom,
and rebels to distresse.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk th'Egyptians from among: Cresse
And broughtest them through the wilder-which was both wide and long. (down 8 The earth did quake, the rain powred heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would cleave in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of raine
abundantly was washt:
And if so be it barren waxe,
by thee it was refresh't.
10 Thy chosen flock doth there remaine
shou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poore thou dost provide
of thine especiall grace.

The second Part.

11 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
12 For puissant kings for all their power shall flee and take the foile:
And women which remaine at home
shall help to part the spoile.

13 And though you were as black as pots,
your hue shall passe the Dove:
Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.
14 When in this land God shall triumph
ore kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others passe:
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill
doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and heape for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.
18 Thou didst O Lord ascend on high,
and captive ledst them all:
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thralldom.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy Temple divine.
19 Now praised be the Lord for that he powres on us such graces:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third Part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death and paine.
21 Thus God wil wound his enemies head and break the hairy scalpe
Of those that in their wickednesse continually do walk.
22 From Basan will I bring said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.
23 And make them dip their feet in bloud
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs shal have their tongues imbrued
with licking of the same.
24 All men may see how thou O God,
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou go'st as God and King
into thine holy place.
25 The singers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play,
with timbrell and with taber.
26 Now in the Congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord.
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.
27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin,
but Juda made their host:
With Zebulon and Nephtalim,
which dwelt about their coast.
28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firme and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.
29 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee O Lord:
For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

Yea and strange Kings to us subdu'd,
shall do like in those daies:
I meane to thee they shall present their gifts of laud and praise.
30 He shall destroy the sparemens tanks
the calves and buls of might:

And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moors, most black shal stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands 32 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing Psalmes to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.
33 Who though he ride and ever bath
above the heavens bright:
Yet by his fearfull thunder-claps men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on hie:
Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudie skie.

35 O God thy holinesse and power is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel gives us strength, praised be God therefore.

PSAL. LXIX. I.H.

SAve me O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast:
So nigh my soul they do proceed,
that I am fore agast.
2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground:
I fall into such fouds I say,
that I am like be drown'd.
3 With crying oft, I faint and quail;
my throat is hoarse and drie:
With looking up my sight doth faile,
for help to God on high.
4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse
my soul, with hate are led:
In number sure they are no lesse
than haire are on my head.
5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.
6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou Lord all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit,
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.
8 It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I do beare this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all
forake me on a row:
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
10 Unto thy house such zeal I beare,
that it doth pine me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second Part.

11 Though I do fast my flesh to chaff,
yea if I weep and mone:
Yet in my teeth this thing is cast,
they passe not thereupon.
12 If I for grieve and paine of heart
in sackcloth use to walk:
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.
13 Both high and low and all the throng
that sit within the gate:
They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.
14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime:
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.
16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep:
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd and depth my soul deuoure:
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.
18 O Lord of hosts to me give care,
as thou art good and kinde:
And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord have me in thy minde.

19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turne thy face away:
I am oppress'd on every side,
in haste give eare I say.
20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyrannie,
acquitt me from my foes.

The third Part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest and thou canst tell:
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.
22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon; (heart,

But finde no friends to ease my smart
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruell for to think:
And gave me in my thirst withall,
strong vinegar to drink.
24 Lord turn their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blinde;
that they may nothing see:
Bow down their backs & do them binde
in thraldome for to be.
26 Powre out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts drie their house disgrace;
their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heap up mischiefs still,
(such they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.
30 And raze them clean out of the book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their name they never look in number of the just.

The fourth Part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with wo and grief
have been full sore oppress'd:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.
32 That I may give thy Name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwaies,
with hearty thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee;
(such minde thy grace hath born)
Than either Oxe or Calf can be:
that hath both hoof and horn.
34 When simple folk do this behold
it shall rejoyce them sure,
All ye that seek the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hosts shall heare
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdaine.
36 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
C 2 the

the sea with floud and streame,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
withall that live in them.

- 37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Judaes Cities build:
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be filld.
38 His servants seed shall keep the same,
all ages out of minde:
39 And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

PSAL. LXX. I.H.

- O God to me take heed,
of help I thee requires:
O Lord of hosts with haste and speed,
help, help, I thee desire.
2 With shame confound them all,
that seek my soule to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wish me ill.
3 Confound them that apply,
and seek to work me shame:
And at my harme do laugh and cry,
so so, there goes the game.
4 But let them joyfull be,
in thee with joy and wealth:
Which only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.
5 That they may say alwaies,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee O Lord.
6 But I am weake and poore,
come Lord thine aid I lack:
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slack.

PSAL. LXXI. I.H.

- MY Lord my God in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art just defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give eare and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.
3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.
4 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folk unjust, and eke from them
the cruelly devoure.

- 5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust;
thou Lord of hosts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee:
6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth
both evening and at morn.
7 As to a monster seldome seen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.
8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee alwaies.
9 Refuse me not O Lord. I say, when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soule forsake.
10 Among themselves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit,
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soule laid wait.

The second Part.

- 11 Lay hand and take him now they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid,
(I wis) there cometh none.
12 Do not absent thy selfe away,
O Lord when need shall be:
But that in time of griefe thou may in haste give help to me.
13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life:
Oppresse them with rebuke also,
that faine would work me strife.
14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assayes:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.
15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send:
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I knew no count nor end.
16 Yet will I go and seek forth one,
with thy good help O God:
The saving health of thee alone,
to shew and set abroad.
17 For of my youth thou tookst the care,
and dost instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou didst me keep and stay:
For sake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

- 19 That I thy strength & might may shew
to them that now be here:
And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a yeare.
- 20 O Lord thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
O who is like to thee?
- 21 Thou mad'st me feeble affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save:
Yea thou didst help and me restore,
and tookst me from the grave.
- 22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintaine:
Yea thou dost make all griefe to cease,
and comfortst me againe.
- 23 Therefore thy faithfullnesse to praise,
I will with violl sing,
My harp shall sound thy praise alwaies,
O Israels holy King.
- 24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee:
And eke my soule will much rejoyce,
for thou hast made me free.
- 25 My tongue thy uprightnes shall sound,
and speak it daily still:
For griefe and shame do them confound,
that seek to work me ill.

PSAL. LXXII. I.H.

- Lord give thy judgements to the King
therein instruct him well:
And with his sonne that princely thing,
Lord let thy justice dwell:
- 3 That he may governe uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright:
And so defend through equity,
the poore that have no might.
- 4 And let the mountaines that are hie,
unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hils apply,
in justice to increase.
- 4 That he may help the weak and poore
with aide, and make them strong:
And eke destroy for evermore,
all those that do them wrong.
- 5 And then from age to age shall they regard and feare thy might:
So long as Sun doth shine by day,
or else the Moone by night.
- 6 Lord make the King unto the just,
like raine to fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sowne.

- 7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace:
Untill the Moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change and to increase.
He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout:
And from the fouds within the land,
through all the earth about.
- 9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneele to him full thicke:
And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and dust shall lick.
- 10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby,
great gifts to him shall bring:
The Kings of Saba and Arabie, give many a costly thing.

The second Part.

- 11 All kings shall seek with one accord,
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serve him at his hand.
- 12 For he the needy sort doth save,
that unto him do call:
And eke the simple folke that have no help of man at all.
- 13 He taketh pity on the poore,
that are with need oppress:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their soules to rest.
- 14 He shall redeem their lives from dread
from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the bloud that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.
- 15 But he shall live and they shall bring to him of Sabaes gold:
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.
- 16 The mighty mountaines of his land
of corne shall beare such thing:
That it like Cedar-trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.
- 17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grasse.
- 18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the Sun is light:
And think them happy through the same all folke shall bleis his might.
- 19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himsele alone.
- 20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. LXXIIL. T.S.

How ever it be yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keep their conſcience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almoſt ſlpt,
my feet began to ſlide:
And ere I wiſt, even at a pinch
my ſteps awry gan glide.
3 For when I ſaw ſuch fooliſh men,
I grudg'd and did diſdaine,
That wicked men all things ſhould have without turnoile or paine.
4 They never ſuffer paings nor griefe,
as if death ſhould them ſmite:
Their bodies are both ſtout and ſtrong,
and ever in good plight.
5 And free from all adverſity,
when other men be ſhent:
And with the reſt they take no part of plague or puniſhment.
6 Therefore preſumption doth embrace their necks, as doth a chaine:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and diſdaine.
7 They are ſo fed, that even for fat
their eyes oft times out ſtart:
And as for worldly goods, they have more than can with their heart.
8 Their life is moſt licentious, boasting much of their wrong
Which they have done to ſimple men and ever pry'd among.
9 The heavens and the living Lord
they ſpare not to blaſpheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do eſteeme.
10 The people of God oft times turn back to ſee their prosperous ſtate:
And almoſt drink the ſelf ſame cup,
and follow the ſame rate.

The ſecond Part.

11 How can it be that God (ſay they) ſhould know or underſtand Theſe worldly things, ſith wicked men
be Lords of ſea and land?
12 For we may ſee how wicked men
in riches ſtill increaſe:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in reſt and peace.
13 Then why do I from wickedneſſe
my fantaſie reſtaine?
And waſh my hands with innocents,
and cleaſe my heart in vaine?
14 And ſuffer ſcourges every day,
as ſubject to all blame:

And every morning from my youth
ſtaine rebuke and ſhame?

15 And I had almoſt ſaid as they,
miſliking mine eſtate:
But that I ſhould thy children judge,
as folk unfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter underſtand:
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.
17 Untill the time I went into,
thy holy place, and then I underſtood right perfectly
the end of all theſe men.
18 And namely, how thou ſetteſt them
upon a ſlippery place:
And at thy pleaſure and thy will thou doſt them all deſace.
19 Then all men muſe at that ſtrange ſight
to ſee how ſuddenly
They are deſtroy'd, diſpatcht, conſum'd,
and dead ſo horribly.
20 Much like a dreame when one awakes,
ſo ſhall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens ſight,
ſhall ebbe and paſſe away.

The third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then my minde was much oppreſt:
22 So ſoud was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beaſt.
23 Yet neretheleſſe by my right hand,
thou holdſt me alwaies faſt:
24 And with thy counſell doſt me guide
to glory at the laſt.
25 What thing is there that I can wiſh,
but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing,
like thee that I can love.
26 My fleſh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth faile me never:
For of my health God is the ſtrength,
my portion eke for ever.
27 And lo all ſuch as thee forſake,
thou ſhalt deſtroy each one:
And thoſe that truſt in any thing,
ſaving in thee alone.
28 Therefore I will draw neer to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my truſt,
thy wonders I will tell.

PSAL. LXXIV. I.H.

Why art thou (Lord) ſo long from us
in all theſe dangers deep?

Why

Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine own pasture sheep?
Lord call thy people to thy thought,
which have been thine so long:
The which thou hast redeem'd & brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Have minde therefore, and think upon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:
They set as signes on every wall,
banners displaid abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these,
within thy temple now.

7 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills and swords,
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile:
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the soile.

9 And thus they said within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land:
10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.

(shame
11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they alwaies blaspheme thy Name,
and raile on thee so long?
12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
O pluck it out, and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second Part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:
Yea thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.
14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the Serpents head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didst break the heads so great

of Whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat,
that in the deserts dwell. (16 16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to e
from rock both hard and hie:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be drie:

17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they were begun:
Thou set'st to serve us with their shine,
the Moone and eke the Sun.
18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer-heats and winter-frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on (O Lord) no time forget thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set to raile upon thy Name.
20 O let no cruell beasts devour
the Turtle that is true, Forget not alwaies in thy power
the poore that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant, and behold
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old,
our Realme as now doth stand.
22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poore and needy aye
give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintain'd,
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.
24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption hie is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

PSAL. LXXV. I.H.

V Nto thee (God) will we give thanks
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy Name is so neare, declare thy wondrous works will we.
3 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your hornes on hie.
4 I said unto them, set not up your raised hornes on hie:
And see that you do with stiffe neck
not speake presumptuously.

For neither from the Eastern parts,
nor from the Westerne sides
Nor from forsaken wildernesse promotion doth proceed.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein,
himselſe doth pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remaine of it:
The wicked of the world shall drink,
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say, of Jacobs God therefore
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
10 In sunder break the hornes of all ungodly men will he:
But then the hornes of righteous men shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

PSAL. LXXVI. I.H.

TO all that now in Jewry dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:
His Name is great in Israel,
a people of his owne.
2 At Salom he his tents hath pight,
to carrie there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battell on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountaines high.

(thee)
5 But now the proud are spoild through and they are faine on sleep:
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.
6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:
As halfe on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadfull, Lord, indeed, what man the courage hath To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard) 8 When thou dost make thy judgements from heaven through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand in judgement for to speak,
To save the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
10 The fury that in man doth raigne shall turne unto thy praise:
Hereafter (Lord) do thou reſtraine
their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make vows, and pay them to our God
ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight
to all the Kings on earth.

PSAL. LXXVII. I.H.

[With my voice to God do cry,
with heart and hearty cheere:
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth heare.
2 In time of griefe I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretch my hands to him abroad,
my soule comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend
my trouble then is more:
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou heldst mine eyes alwaies from rest
that I therewith did wake:
With feare I am so sore oppress,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The daies of old in minde I cast, and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past full many yeares agoe.
6 By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?
8 What? is his goodnesse clean decayd
for ever and a day?

Or is his promise now delaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?

Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to with-hold?

10 At last I said, my weaknesse is the cause of this mistrust, Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second Part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:

Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:

To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsell wise.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad:

What one hath strength to match, might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that dost forth show
thy wonders every houre:

And dost make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou dost defend with strength and stretched armes:

The sonnes of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harme.

16 The waters Lord perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:

And they for feare away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

(black)

17 The clouds that were both thick and did raine full plenteously:

The thunder in the aire did crack,
thy shafts abroad did flie.

18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
thy lightnings from above,

With flashes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy waies within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep:

Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep:

20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land,
as sheep on every side:

Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guide.

PSAL. LXXVIII. I.H.

Attend my people to my Law,
and to my words incline.

2 My mouth shall speak strange parables,
and sentences divine.

3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old: (learn'd And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race
and all his works of wonder: (praise

5 To Jacob he commandment gave,
how Israel should live:
Willing our fathers should the same unto their children give.

6 That they and their posterity,
that were not sprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.

7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his lawes,
and his precepts in love.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoile:
Shooting their shafts in day of warrey,
and yet they took the foile?

10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made:
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:

11 But put into oblivion,
his counsell and his will:
And all his works most magnifiquy,
which he declared still.

The second Part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers:
did he him selfe disclose:

In Egypt land, within the field,
that call'd is Thaneos?

13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heape of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud:
by day when it was bright And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentifull as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks:
C. 5. that

that were both drie and hard:
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high,
to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted God within their hearts
like people of mistrust, Requiring such a kinde of meat,
as served to their lust.
19 Saying with murmuration,
in their unfaithfullnesse:
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold he strake the stony rocks,
and founts forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third Part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could alwaies help and succour them
in their necessity.
23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:
24 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eate,

25 When earthly men with Angels food were fed at their request:
26 He bad the East-winde blow away,
and brought in the South-West.
27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowle as thick as sand:
28 Which he did cast amid the place,
where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serve their lusts and wils.
30 But as the meat was in their mouthes,
his wrath upon them fell:
31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israel.

32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
33 Their daies therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vaine:
Their yeares did waste and passe away,
with terror and with paine.

34 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by:
35 Remembring that he was their strength
their help and God most high.
36 Though in their mouthes they did but and flatter with the Lord: (glose
And with their tongues & in their hearts dissembled every word.

The fourth Part.

37 For why their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to performe
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die:
That he forgave them their misdoings,
and would not them destroy.

Yea many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himselfe advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a winde,
Passing away, and cannot well
return by his own kinde.

40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke?
How did they move and stirre the Lord
to plague them with his stroke?
41 Yet did they turn againe to sin,
and tempted God oft times:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power, nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their countrey full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth Part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the Caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.
47 With haile-stones he destroyed their so that they were all lost: (vines,
And

And not so much as wilde fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

48 And yet with haile-stones once againe
the Lord their cattell smote:
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunder-bolts full hot.

49 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath and evil sprites,
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.

51 He strake also the first-borne all,
that up in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his own deare folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all feare both life and sound
he brought them out of thral:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were over-whelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coast
of his own holy land:

Even to the Mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the Tribes of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most high they stir'd and tempted still:

And would not keep his Testament,
nor yet obey his will:

57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray:

Much like a bowe that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The last Part.

58 And griev'd him with their high-altars
with offrings and with fire:

And with their idols vehemently provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began againe
to kindle in his brest:

The naughtinesse of Israel
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men,

even as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and powe

in bondage for to stand:
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage:

63 Their young men were devour'd with maids had no marriage.

64 And with the sword the Priests also did perish every one:

And not a widow left alive,
their death for to bemone.

65 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:

And like a valiant man of warre,
refreshed after wine.

66 With Emrods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:

And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Ioseph did refuse:

As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.

68 But chose the Tribe of Iehuda, whereas he thought to dwell:

Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

69 Whereas he did his Temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:

Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.

70 Then chose he David him to serve,
his people for to keep:

Whom he took up and brought away,
even from the folds of sheep.

71 As he did follow th'Ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance:

To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David with a faithfull heart
his flock and charge did feed:

And prudently with all his power,
did governe them indeed.

PSAL. LXXIX. I.H.

O God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoile

Jerusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they defile.

2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare abroad to birds they cast:

The flesh of them that do thee feare,
the beasts devoure and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
as water spilt they have:

So that there is not one of them

- so lay their dead in grave.
 4 Thus are we made a laughing stock;
 almost the world throughout:
 The enemies at us jest and mock,
 which dwell our coasts about.
 5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thine ire,
 against us ever fume,
 And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
 thy folk for to consume?
 6 Upon those people pour the same,
 which did thee never know:
 All Realmes which call not on thy Name,
 consume and overthrow.
 7 For they have got the upper hand,
 and Jacobs seed despoild:
 His habitation and his land,
 they have left waste and void.
 8 Beare not in minde our former faults,
 with speed some pitie shew:
 And aid us Lord, in all assaults,
 for we are weak and low.

The second Part.

- 9 O God that giv'st all health and grace
 on us declare the same:
 Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
 for honour of thy Name.
 10 Why shall the wicked still away,
 to us as people dumbe,
 In thy reproach rejoyce and say,
 where is their God become!

Requie (O Lord) as thou seest good;
 before our eyes in sight,
 Of all these folk thy servants blood,
 which they spik in despight.
 11 Receive into thy sight in haste,
 the clamours, grieve and wrong,
 Of such as are in prison cast,
 sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength ad celebrate;
 Lord set them out of band,
 Which unto death are destinate,
 and in their enemies hand.
 12 The nations which have been so bold
 as to blaspheme thy Name:
 Into their laps with seven-fold repay againe the same.

13 So we thy flock and pasture sheep
 will praise thee evermore:
 And teach all ages for to keep
 for thee like praise in store.

PSAL. LXXX. I.H.

Thou herd that Israel dost keep,
 give eare and take good heed:
 Which ledest Joseph like a sheep,

and dost him watch and feed;
 2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set on Cherubins most bright:
 Shew forth thy selfe, and do not let;
 send down thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
 Manasses eke likewise:
 To shew thy power do thou begin;
 come help us Lord arise.
 4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace;
 convert us, Lord, to thee:
 Shew us the brightnesse of thy face;
 and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
 how long wilt thou I say, Against thy folk in anger swell,
 and wilt not heare them pray?
 6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep;
 their bread with teares they eate:
 And drink the teares that they do weep;
 in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast us made a very strife;
 to those that dwell about:
 And that our foes do love alive,
 they laugh and jest it out.
 8 O take us (Lord) unto thy grace;
 convert our hearts to thee:
 Shew forth to us thy joyfull face;
 and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well;
 thou brought'st a vine full deare:
 The heathen folk thou didst expell,
 and thou didst plant it there.
 10 Thou didst prepare for it a place;
 and set her roots full fast:
 That it did grow and spring apace,
 and fill'd the land at last.

The second Part.

11 The hills were covered round about with shade that from it came:
 And eke the Cedars strong and stout,
 with branches of the same.
 12 Why then didst thou her wals destroy her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
 That all the folk that passe thereby,
 thy vine may spoile and waste.

13 The Boare out of the wood so wilde;
 doth dig and root it out:
 The furious beasts out of the field
 devoure it all about.
 14 O Lord of hosts returne againe;
 from heaven look beime:
 Behold and with thy help sustaine
 this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,

whom

whom thy right hand hath set:
The time which thou didst love so well:
O Lord do not forget.
16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now,
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hosts through thy good convert us unto thee: (grace, Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full fast are we.

PSAL. LXXXI. I.H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyfull and lift up your voice,
to Jacobs God I say:
2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyfull Psalmes to sing:
Strike up with Harp and Lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moone,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done,
at any solemne feast.
4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witnesse all his seed should still observe the same.
6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burthen clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall,
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea, at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and prove:

Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst move, 10 Heare O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second Part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve,
of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise bow to or serve
a strange or forreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare,
my voice when that I spake:
And Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart:
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard to walk within my way.
16 How soon would I confound their foes,
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those that would them overthrow.

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till:
But of his folk the time and age,
should flourish ever still.

18 I would have fed them with the crop,
and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fill should eat.

PSAL. LXXXII. I.H.

AMid the presse with men of might
the Lord himselfe doth stand To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.

2 How long (said he) will you proceed,
false judgement to award
And have respect for love of meed,
the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weak:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the clauies

of tyrants force and might.

- 5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talk:
They will not see, or ought discern,
but still in darknesse walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gaine are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

Slup Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own,
so take them as thy right.

PSAL. LXXXIII. I.H.

DO not (O God) refraine thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not, Lord, thy selfe so long,
and make no more delay.

2 For why? behold thy foes and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that beare an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on hie.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsell doth conspire.

4 Come on say they, let us expell,
and pluck these folk away:
So that the Name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
with diuerse others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:

The Philistims against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Ashur eke is well appaid, with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lots posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:

As to Sifer and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open fight.

The second Part.

11 Make them now & their Lords appeare like Zeb and Oreb than:

As Zeba and Zalmunna were the Kings of Midian.

12 Which said, let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad Possesse and take into our hand
the faire houses of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with stormes as fast
as wheelles that have no stay:
Or like the chaffe, which men do cast,
with windes to flie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forests spils:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountaines and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and shrowe
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learne to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie,
perish also withall.

18 That they may know and feel full well that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and raigne throughout the world.

PSAL. LXXXIV. I.H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me!
The Tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant Lord they be!

2 My soule doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrowes finde a roome to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest,
wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thine Altar may have

have place to sit and sing
O Lord of hosts, thou art I say,
 my God and eke my King.
5 O they be blessed that may dwell
 within thy house alwaies:
 For they all times thy facts do tell,
 and ever give thee praise.
6 Yea happy sure likewise are they whose stay and strength thou art:
 Which to thy house do minde the way,
 and seek it in their heart.
7 As they go through the vale of teares,
 they dig up fountaines still:
 That as a spring it all appeares,
 and thou their pits dost fill.
8 From strength to strength they walk full no faintnesse there shall be: (sa)
 And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.
9 O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
 and heare when I do pray:
 And let it through thine eares proceed,
 O Jacobs God, I say.
10 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace,
 regard and so draw neare:
 Regard, I say, behold the face of thine anointed deare.
11 For why? within thy Courts one day
 is better to abide,
 Than other where to keep or stay,
 a thousand daies beside.
12 Much rather would I keep a doore
 within the house of God,
 Than in the tents of wickednesse
 to settle mine abode.
13 For God the Lord light and defence,
 will grace and worship give:
 And no good thing shall he with-hold
 from them that purely live.
14 O Lord of hosts that man is blest,
 and happy sure is he,
 That is perswaded in his brest,
 to trust all times in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV. I.H.

THou hast been mercifull indeed,
 O Lord unto thy land:
 For thou restoredst Jacobs seed,
 from thraldome out of band.
2 The wicked waies that they were in,
 thou didst them cleane remit:
 And thou didst hide the peoples sin,
 full close thou covered it.
3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
 that all thy wrath was gone:
 And so didst turn thee from thy rage,

with them to be at one.
4 O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee:
 Put all thy wrath from us apart,
 and angry cease to be.
5 Why shall thine anger never end,
 but still proceed on us?
 And shall thy wrath it selfe extend upon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
 and quicken us, that we,
 And all thy folk may evermore
 be glad and joy in thee?
7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodnesse to our wealth:
 Shew forth to us, and do not spare
 thine aid and saving health.
8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
 And to his Saints, that never they returne to foolishnesse.
9 For why? his help is still at hand,
 to such as do him feare:
 Whenceby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall meet;
 in one to take their place:
 And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
 and there they shall embrace.
11 As truth from earth shall spring apace
 and flourish pleasantly:
 So righteousness shall shew her face,
 and look from heaven high.
12 Yea God himselfe doth take in hand
 to give us each good thing:
 And through the coasts of all the land,
 the earth her fruit shall bring.
13 Before his face shall justice go,
 much like a guide or stay:
 He shall direct his steps also,
 and keep them in the way.

PSAL. LXXXVI. I.H.

Lord bow thine eare to my request,
 and heare me by and by:
 With grievous paine and griefe oppress,
 full poore and weak am I.
2 Preserve my soule, because my waies
 and doings holy be:
 And save thy servant, O my Lord,
 that puts his trust in thee.
3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me expresse;
 defend me eke withall:
 For through the day I do not cease
 on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soules,
 that:

that now with paine is pin'd;
For unto thee (Lord) I extoll,
and lift my soule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull,
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an eare:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complaine:
For why? I know and well do prove,
thou answerest me againe.

8 Among the gods (O Lord) is none
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not bene heard.

The second Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joyne my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

12 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name alwaies,
for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me;
is great, and doth excell:
Thou setst my soule at liberty,
out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soule, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turne to me and mercy grant;
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of favour shew,
that all my foes may see,
And be astonish'd, because (Lord) thou doest help and comfort me.

PSAL. LXXXVII. I. M.

That City shall full well endure
her ground-work still doth stay:
Upon the holy hills full sure;
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more than all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee;
thou City of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and beare in minde the same:
And Babylon shall ake apply,
and learne to know my Name.

5 Loe, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiope likewise:
A people old full long ago
were borne, and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that diverse men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appeare:
Of Sion that the chief of all had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing, therein great plenty be:
My fountaines and my pleasant springs
are compass all in thee.

PSAL. LXXXVIII. I. M.

Lord God of health the hope and stay;
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soone ascend unto thy sight on hie: Incline thine eare, O Lord attend;
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd;
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yeeld;
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that there remain:
It were more ease for me to be with them the which are slaine.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom

whom thou hast cleane forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

- 7 Yea like to one shut up full sore
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.
8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me do lie:
And all thy stormes against me rise,
my soule to vex and trie.
9 Thou putst my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
10 My sight doth faile through grief and I call to thee, O God: (wo, Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second Part.

- 11 Dost thou unto the dead declare
thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life againe repaire,
and praise thee for the same?
12 Or shall thy loving kindnesse Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroid,
thy truth her honour have?
13 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?
14 But I O Lord to thee swaies
do cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.
15 Why dost thou Lord abhorre my soule
in griefe that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
16 I am afflicted dying still,
from youth this many a yeare:
Thy terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled minde I beare.
17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrours eke do not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.
18 All day they compasse me about;
as waters at the tide:
And all at once with streams full rout;
beset me on each side.
19 Thou settest far from me my friends,
and lovers every one:
Yea and mine old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

PSAL. LXXXIX. I.H.

To sing the mercies of the Lord;
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

- 2 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remaine:
In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plaine.
3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My servant David to perswade,
I swore and did protest.
4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still uphold thy throne alway,
from age to age to last.
5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth;
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy Saints within thy Church on earth
thy faith and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equall then,
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sonnes of all the gods,
what one is like our God?
7 God in assembly of his Saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.
8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world;
what one is like to thee?
On every side most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.
9 The raging sea by thine advice; thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.
10 And Egypt (Lord) thou hast subdu'd;
and thou hast it destroid:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arme
hast scattered all abroad.
The second Part.
11 The heavens are thine, & still have been likewise the earth and land:
The world and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand:
12 Both North & South with East & West
thy selfe didst make and frame:
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.
13 Thine arm is strong and full of power
all might therein doth liet:
The strength of thy right hand each houre
thou liftest up on hie.
14 In righteounesse and equity thou.

thou hast thy seat and placet Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knowes aright
thy present power O God:
For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce:
And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid
in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodnesse eke that hath us staide,
shall lift our horne on hie.

18 Our strength that doth defend us wele,
the Lord to us doth bring:

The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints
in vision thou didst show:

And thus then didst thou say to them
thy minde to make them know

20 A man of might I have cre&, your King and guide to be:

And set him up whom I cle&,
among the folk to me.

The third Part.

21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:

And with my holy oyle anoint
him King of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is ready still with him for to remaine:

And with my arm also I will him strengthen and sustaine.

23 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him not deuoure:

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
on him have any power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in fight:

And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall,
shall still upon him lie:

And in my name his horne eke shall be lifted up on high.

26 His Kingdome I will set to be upon the sea and land:

And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say:

My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-borne I will him take,
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.

29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my selfe have told:

My faithfull covenant to fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.

30 And eke his seed I will sustaine
for ever strong and sure:

So that his seed shall still remaine,
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth Part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my Law,
and so begin to swere:

And of my judgement have none awe,
nor will not them observe.

32 Or if they will not use aright
my statutes to them made:

And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade.

33 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend:

And so will scourge them for their sin,
if that they do offend.

34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:

Nor handle him with craftynesse,
and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:

No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by my holynesse,
and that performe will I:

With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lye.

37 His seed for evermore shall raigne,
and eke his throne of might,

As doth the Sun, it shall remaine
for ever in my sight.

38 And as the Moone within the skie
for ever standeth fast:

A faithfull witnesse from on hie,
so shall his kingdome last.

39 But now Lord us thou dost reje&,
and now thou changeest cheare:

Yea, thou art wrath with thine ele&,
thin own anointed deare.

40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord thou hast quite undone:

And down upon the ground also hast cast his royall crowne.

The fifth Part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with his

his waile thou dost confound :
 Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
 and breakst them to the ground.
 42 That he is sore destroid and torne,
 of comers by throughout:
 And so is made a mock and scorn
 to all that dwell about.
 43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up,
 that him so sore ancy:
 And all his foes that him deuoure,
 loe thou hast made to joy.
 44 His sword edge thou dost take away
 that should his foes withstand:
 To him is warre no victory
 thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
 45 His glory thou dost also waste,
 his throne, his joy, and mirth
 By thee are overthrown, and cast
 full low upon the earth.
 46 Thou hast cut off, and made full short
 his youth and lusty daies,
 And mis'd of him an ill report,
 with shame and great dispraise.
 47 How long away from me, O Lord,
 for ever wilt thou turn?
 And shall thine anger still alway,
 as fire consume and burne?
 48 O call to minde, remember then,
 my time consumeth fast:
 Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
 as things in vaine to waste?
 49 What man is he that liueth here,
 and death shall never see?
 Or from the hand of Hell his soule
 shall he deliver free?
 50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnesse,
 so oft declar'd before,
 Which by thy truth and uprightnesse
 to David thou hast swore?
 51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
 that on thy servants lie:
 The railings of the people all borne in my brest haue I: 52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
 blasphem'd haue thy Name:
 The steps of thine anointed one
 they cease not to defame.
 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
 both now and eke for aye:
 Through skie and earth, and all the coast:
 Amen, Amen, I say.

PSAL. XC. I.H.

THOU Lord hast been our sure defence,
 our place of ease and rest:
 In all times past, yea so long since,

as cannot be exprest.
 2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
 the earth and world abroad:
 From age to age, and alwaies still,
 for ever thou art God.
 3 Then grindest man through grief and to dust, or clay, and then, (paine)
 And then thou faist againe, returne,
 againe ye sonnes of men.
 4 The lasting of a thousand yeeares,
 what is it in thy sight?
 As yesterday it doth appeare,
 or as a watch by night.
 5 So soone as thou dost scatter them,
 then is their life and trade
 All as a sleepe, and like the grasse,
 whose beauty soon doth fade.
 6 Which in the morning shines full but fadeth by and by: (bright)
 And is cut down ere it be night,
 all withered, dead and drie.
 7 For through thine anger we consume,
 our might is much decaid:
 And of thy seruent wrath and fume
 we are full sore afraid.
 8 The wicked works that we haue wrought
 thou setst before thine eyes:
 Our priuy faults, yea eke our thoughts thy countenance doth spie. (waste, 9 For through thy wrath our daies do thereof doth nought remaine:
 Our yeeares consume as words or blasts,
 and are not cal'd againe,
 10 Our time, is threescore yeeares and ten;
 that we do live on mold:
 If one see fourescore, surely then,
 we count him wondrous old.

The second Part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and chief
 the which we count upon,
 is nothing els but painefull grieffe,
 and we as blasts are gone. (there 12 Who once doth know what strength is,
 what might thine anger hath:
 Or in his heart who doth thee feare
 according to thy wrath?
 13 Instruct us Lord to know and try
 how long our daies remaine:
 That then we may our hearts apply,
 true wisdom to attaine.
 14 Returne, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on thy wrath proceed?
 Shew fauour to thy seruants now,
 and help them at their need.
 15 Refresh us with thy mercy soone,
 and then our joy shall be,

All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the yeares wherein full sore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appeare
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children deare,
thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to us.

PSAL. XCI. I.H.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keep him well.
2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy sence shall be,
as sure as shield and speare.

5 So that thou shalt not need I say,
to feare or be affright,
Of all the shafts that flie by day,
nor terrours of the night.
6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noone day doth waste.

7 Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
8 But thou shalt see it for thy part thine eyes shall well regard:
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only lust to stay my hope on thee:
And in the highest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.
10 Thou shalt not need the ill to feare,
with thee it shall be well:
Nor yet the plague shall once come neare
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all;
with charge commanded he:
That still in all thy waies they shall preserve and prosper thee.
12 And in their hands shall beare thee up;
still waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance to spurne at any stone.

13 Upon the Lions thou shalt go;
the Adder fell and long:
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons stout and strong.
14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will acquit him quite:
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright:

15 When he for help on me doth cry;
an answer I will give:
And from his griefe take him will I
in glory for to live.
16 With length of yeares and daies of
I will fulfill his time: (wealth
The goodnesse of my saving health,
I will declare to him.

PSAL. XCII. I.H.

IT is a thing both good and meet;
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy Name, O thou most High;
to sing with one accord.
2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten stringed instruments;
on Lute and Harp so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent;
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce;
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice;
thy handy-works to see.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great;
are all thy works so stout?
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can trie them out.
6 The man unwise hath not the wit;
these things to passe to bring:
And all such fooles are nothing fit,
to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will;
as grasse do spring full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty Lord most High;
yea thou dost raigne therefore;

In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold thy foes I say,
How all that work iniquity,
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an Unicorn,
shalt lift mine horne on hie;
With fresh and new prepared oyle,
thine oynted King am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame

Of all that up against me rise,
mine eares shall heare the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:

Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shal bring both fat and well beeen:
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:

He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

PSAL. XCIIII. I.H.

THe Lord as King aloft doth raigne,
with glory goodly dight:

And he to shew his strength most maine, hath girt himselfe with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
and shap'd it so sure,

No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought
thy seat was set before:

Beyond all time, that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roare and make a noise:

The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the stormes arise in sight
though seas do rage and swell:

The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And look what promise he doth make,
his household to defend:

For just and true they shall it keepe,

all times without an end.

PSAL. XCIIII. I.H.

O Lord thou dost revenge all wronge,
that office longs to thee:

Such vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy selfe, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide:

Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway
with lifting up their voice?

How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce? (out)

4 How long shall they with brags burst and proudly prate their fill?

Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoile and vex full sore:

Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widowes which are comfortlesse,
and strangers they destroy:

They slay the children fatherlesse,
and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand
this talk they have of thee:

Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush, no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discorne:

Ye fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.

9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needs of right must heare:

He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appeare.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand:

Shall be not then your deeds detest?
how can you scape his hand?

The second Part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plaine: (man,

The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth kee
and findeth them but vaine.

12 But Lord, that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe:

And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy Law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit;

When wicked men shall be suppress,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure, the Lord will not refuse his people for to take:

His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that judgement be decreed,
to justice to convert:

That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand, against the cursed traine?

Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintaine?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell:

My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:

Thy goodnesse Lord did so provide,
to stay me up withall.

19 When with my selfe I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:

Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch,
and that did ease my minde.

20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self, and draw with wicked men to sit?

Which with pretence instead of law,
much mischief do commit.

21 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good:

And in their counsels they are rife,
to shed the guiltlesse blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or lock:

He is my God to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:

And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

PSAL. XC V. I. H.

O Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord:

In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.

2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praise:

In singing Psalmes unto his grace,
let us be glad alwaies.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God:

A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep
and corners of the land:

The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his;
for he the same hath wrought:

The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord;
before him let us fall:

And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:

We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will heare,
then harden not your hearts:

As ye with grudging many a yeare
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me;
my power for to prove:

My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.

10 Twice twenty yeares they did me grieve
and I to them did say,

They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I sware, when that my wrath
was kindled in my brest:

That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

PSAL. XC VI. I. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord;
new songs with joy and mirth:

Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name:

Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:

To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:

And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk are idols that will fade:

But yet our God, he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell,
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world:
All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name:
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second Part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearefull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth raigne above:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might:
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoyce:
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

PSAL. XCVII. I. H.

THe Lord doth raign, whereat y earth
may joy with pleasant voice:
And eke the Isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swell
and round about him bear:
Yea right and justice ever dwell,
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appeare:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hills like waxe did melt in fight
and presence of the Lord:

They fled before that Rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens eke declare and show
his justice all abroad:
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vaine:
And eke to those that glory much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.

8 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call:
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce
For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that feare the Lord do this;
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth save the soules of his
from such as would them spill, 12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladnesse, mirth, and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holinesse proclaime:
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

PSAL. XCVIII. I. H.

OSing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song: (world)
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour:
And get him selfe the victory,
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make his people know his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his justice show,
in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce,
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with Psalmes:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King,
with Trumpets and with Shalmes.

7 Yea let the sea with all therein
for joy both roare and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the fouds rejoyce their firs,
and clap their hands apace:
And eke the mountaines and the hills
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily
with iustice and with right.

PSAL. XCIX. I.H.

The Lord doth raigne, although at it
the people rage full fore:
Yea he on Cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do roare.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearefull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devis,
all honour to him do:
Before his footstoole worship him,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well
and gave them answer all.

7 Within a cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,
To keep such lawes as he did make,
and pointed them untill.

8 O Lord our God thou didst them heare,
and answeredst them againe:
Thy mercy did on them appeare,
their deeds didst not maintaine.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why, our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

PSAL. C. I.H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with chearfull voices:
Him serve with feare, his praise forth tell
come ye before him and rejoyce.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and blesse his Name alwaies
for it is seemely so to do.

4 For why the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by I.H.

In God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
Serve him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:
Not we our selves: for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

3 O go into his gates alwaies,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praises
and laud his holy Name.

4 For why, the goodnesse of the Lord
for evermore doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remaine.

PSAL. CI. I.H.

Mercy will and judgement shall
O Lord God unto thee:

2 And wisely do in perfect way,
untill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk
in purenesse of my sprite:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing
will set before my sight.

4 I hate their works that fall away
it shall not cleave to me:
From me shall part the froward heart,
none evill will I see.

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh high.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them within the land that faithfull be:
Imperfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guilefull person have,
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

PSAL. CII. N.

O Heare my prayer Lord and let my cry come unto thee.

2 In time of trouble do not hide,
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine eare to me, make haste
to heare me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do,
my daies consume and fall.

4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt;
my heart is smitten dead:
And withers like the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As Pelican in wildernesse, such case now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in desert is,
so I am such an one:

I watch and as a Sparrow on the house top am alone.

8 Lo daily in reproachfull wise,
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworne.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have filled:
And mingled have my drink with tears
that from mine eyes have stild.

10 Because of thy displeasure Load,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grasse,
which soon away doth fade.

12 But thou O Lord for ever dost remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second Part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:

The time of mercy, now the time
foreset is come to end.

14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.

15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:

And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And when when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown shall spread.

19 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the wofull cry:
And that he might deliver those that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Ierusalem set forth
the praises of the same.

22 Then when the people of the lands;
and kingdomes with accord,
shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he hath cut my daies
thus I therefore did say:

24 My God in midst of all my daies
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.

25 Thou the foundation of the earth
before all time hast laid:
And Lord the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 Yea all shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in a time wax old,
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change and changed they shall be:

Pfalme Ciiij. Ciiij.

But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

PSAL. CIIIL. T.S.

MY soule give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy selfe unkinde:
And suffer not his benefits,
to slip out of thy minde.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That filld with goodnesse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age reneweth.
6 The Lord with justice hath repay
all such as be oppress'd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.
7 His waies and his commandments
to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great,
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodnesse much more large
to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all:
As faire as is the Sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second Part.

13 And look what pitie parents deare
unto their children beare:
Like pitie beareth God to such as worship him in feare.
14 The Lord that made us knows our our mold and fashion just: (shape)
How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we are but dust.
15 And how the time of mortall men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full soon away.
16 Whose glosse & beauty stormy windes
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossomes have no place.
17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children shall receive his righteousnesse at hand.
18 I meane which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.
19 The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stoole of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.
20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.
21 Ye noble hosts and ministers, cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
22 Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my minde and eke my soule
praise ye also the same.

PSAL. CIIIL. W.K.

MY soule praise the Lord,
speake good of his Name:
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appeare:
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame:
Honour and Majesty
in thee shine most cleare.
2 With light as a robe
thou hast thee beclad:
Whereby all the earth
thy greatnesse may see:
The heaven in such sort thou also hast spread,

That it to a curtaine
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beames lie
in the clouds full sure:
Which as his chariot
are made him to beare.
And there with much swiftnesse
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of windes in the aire.
4 He maketh his spirits
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve,
we see also preft:
His will to accomplishe,
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.
6 The deep a faire covering for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.
7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flic
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be:
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.

8 The mountaines full high
they then up ascend:
If thou dost but speak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewise the vallies
most quickly descend.
Where thou them appointest, remaine they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how farre they shall run:
So that in their rage
not that passe they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not return,
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second Part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streames or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.
11 Where both the wilde asses
their thirst oft times slakes,
And beasts of the mountaines thereof drink their sakes.

12 By these pleasant springs of fountaines full faire
The fowles of the ayre abide shall and dwell
Who moved by nature
to hop here and theret
Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountaines to moke
the clouds he doth use
The earth with his works
is wholly repleat.
14 So as the brute cattell
he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.
15 Yea bread, wine and oyle
he made for mans sake:
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
16 The Cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.

17 In these may birds build,
and make there their nest:
In firre-trees the Storks remaine and abide.
18 The high hills are succome
for wilde goats to rest:
And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.
19 The Moon then is set
her season to run:
The daies from the nights
thereby to discern:
And by the descending
also of the Sun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darknesse doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood.
21 The Lions range roaring,
their prey to devour:
But yet it is thou Lord
which givest them food.
22 As soon as the Sun
is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full sines.
23 That man to his work may as right doth require:
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.

The third Part.

24 How sundry O Lord,
are all thy workes found?

With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought, 25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad:
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
26 There both mighty ships saile,
and some lie at road:
The Whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.
28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to giue;
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they with good things are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodnesse
the dry earth renew.
31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last:
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.
32 His looks can the earth make to tremble full fast:
And likewise the mountaines
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God,
sing will I alwaies:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I:
34 Then am I most certaine
my words shall him please:
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.
35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
And eke the perverse,
them root out with shame:
But as for my soule now,
let it still desire,

And say with the faithfull,
praise ye the Lords Name:

PSAL. Cv. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name:
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye unto the Lord I say,
and sing unto his praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought alwaies.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternall might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done
keep still in mindfull heart:
Ne let the judgements of his mouth
out of your minde depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed:
Ye his elect the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightfull judgements are through all the world abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.
10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo I to you all Canaan land will give:
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.
12 Although the number at that time
did very small appeare:
Yea very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode:
(land
And

And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand
he suffered them to take:

But even the great and mighty Kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:

Ne do the Prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He cal'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroid the stores:

But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:

The third Part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in woe:

Whose feet they hart in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also.

18 Untill the time came when his cause was known apparently:

The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultlesse truth did trie.

19 The King sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:

20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.

21 And over all his house he made him Lord to beare the sway:

And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay:

22 That he might to his will instruct
the Princes of the land:

And wisdomes lore his ancient men might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:

And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow,

And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with his people did intreat: (hate

And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,

He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 The wondrous message of his signes
among them he did show:

And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darknesse he sent, and made it dark in stead of brighter days

And unto his commision,
they did not disobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay: (place

30 Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies,

And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stony haile
in stead of milder raine:

And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their paine.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:

And all their trees within their coasts
downe did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then Caterpillars did and Grasshoppers abound:

35 Which ate the grasse in all their land and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth Part.

36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly he did smite:

Yea the beginning and first fruit
of all their force and might:

37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to passe:

And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then when they did thence depart:

For terrour and the feare of them
was faln upon their heart.

39 To shroud them from the parching heat
a cloud he did display:

And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused Quailles to raine at their request:

And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repress.

41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:

And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers run about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho:

Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago. (mirth,

43 He brought his people forth with
and his elect with joy,

Out of the cruell land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands, 45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore:
And faithfully obey his lawes:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVI. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dureth for aye:
2 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that judgement keep,
and justly do alway:
With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.

4 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me:
That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see.
5 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull minde possesse:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
have sinned every one:
We have committed wickednesse,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land:
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

Nor yet thy mercies multitude did keep in thankfull minde:
But at the sea, yea the red sea,
rebelled most unkinde.
8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name:
That he might make his power knowne
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd:
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.
10 He sav'd them from the cruell hand
of their despitefull foe:
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd,
not one was left alive:
12 Then they belev'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give.
13 But by and by unthankfully

his works they clean forgot:
And for his counsell and his will they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton mindes desire,
he suffer'd them to have:
But wasting leanness therewithall unto their soules he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devoure:
And all Abirams company
did cover in that houre.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calfe-did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likenesse of a Calfe which feedeth on the grasse, Thus they their glory turn'd and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done:
And by the red sea dreadfull things performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkinde:
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his minde:

Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, lest he on them with slaughter should him wreak, 24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give:
Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.

26 There.

36 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.

37 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.

38 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoyne themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.

39 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his sore inkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.

40 But Phineas stood up with zeal,
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth Part.

41 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth is counted is,
from race to race, I say.

42 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.

43 Because they vex'd his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.

44 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho:

45 But were among the heathen mix'd,
and learn'd their works also.

46 And did their idols serve, which were their ruine and decay:

47 To fiends their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay:

48 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltlesse blood they spilt:
Yea their own sons and daughters bloud,
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand:
And so with bloud of innocents,
defiled was the land.

49 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And even his own inheritance

he did abhorre therefore.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (they

The first Part

42 Yea and their full enemies
opprest them in the land:
And they were humble made to stoop,
as subject to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from all had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they provok'd him evermore. wrath

Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hearkned to their cry.

45 He cal'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore:

And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde,
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.

47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:

That we may glory in thy praise,
and founding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:

Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVII. W.K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortall men may see.

1 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his Name:
And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.

2 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did finde them out.

3 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way:
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

- 5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:
That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke their soules anoid.
- 6 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praide.
- 7 And by that way, which was most right
he led them li^{ke} a guide:
That they might ⁱⁿ a City go,
and there before the Lord
- 8 Let men his kindnesse then:
confesse the wonders that he doth
And shew the sonnes of men.
- or he the empty soul sustain'd whom thirst had made to faint
The hungry soul with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
- 10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms
as iron chaines do threat.

The second Part.

- 11 For that against the Lords own words
they sought so to rebell:
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so farre excell.
- 12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with griefe:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
- 13 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praide
- 14 For he from darknes out them brought
and from deaths dreadfull shades Bursting with force the iron bands which them before did lade:
- 15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.
- 16 For he threw down the gates of brass
and brake them with strong hand:
The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.
- 17 The foolish folk great plagues do feele
and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
- 18 Their souls so much did loath all meat
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

- 19 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they praide.
- 20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third Part.

- 21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
- 22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also feare:
And speake of all his wondrous works with glad and joyfull cheare.
- 23 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend:
Their merchandise through fearfull fouds
to compasse and to end.
- 24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep the same
most marvellous they see.
- 25 For at his word the stormy winde
ariseth in a rage:
And stirreth up the surges so,
that nought can them assuage.
- 26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gaine:
And plunging down the depth untill
their soules consume with paine.
- 27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele:
As men with feare of wit bereft;
or had of sense no feel.
- 28 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praide.
- 29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy stormes to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace.
- 30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so faine would have.

The fourth Part.

- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
- 32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extoll his Name:
And where the Elders do convent,
there let them do the same.

- 33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
- 34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deck'd
full barren doth he make,
When on their sinnes that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
- 35 Against the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to beare:
With pleasant springs of waters cleare,
though none before were there.
- 36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a City might them build,
to dwell in for their use.
- 37 That they may sowe their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant,
To yeeld them fruit of such increase,
as none may seeme to want.
- 38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also the brute beasts make by numbers great to grow.
- 39 But when the faithfull are low brought
by the oppressors stout:
And minish do through many plagues that compass them about.
- 40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame,
which did them sore oppress:
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wilderness.
- 41 But yet the poore he raiseth up out of their troubles deep:
And oft times doth their traine augment much like a flock of sheep.
- 42 The righteous shall be'old this fight,
and also much rejoyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with griefe shall stop their voice.
- 43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive the kindnesse of the Lord.

PSAL. CVIII. IH.

- O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also.
- 2 Awake my violl and my harp,
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my selfe
right early will awake.
- 3 By me among the people Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:

- And I among the heathen folk
will sing O Lord to thee.
- 4 Because thy mercy Lord is great,
above the heavens hie:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.
- 5 Above the starrie heavens high
exalt thy selfe O God:
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
- 6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
whereof my joyes abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.
- 8 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be:
My head-strength Ephraim, and law shall Juda give for me.
- 9 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
- 10 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?
- 11 Is it not thou O Lord which late hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?
- 12 Give us O Lord thy saving aid,
when troubles do assaile:
For all the help of man is vaine,
and can no whit availe.
- 13 Through God we shall do valiant acts,
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down.

PSAL. CIX. N.

- I N speechlesse silence do not hold
O God thy tongue alwaies:
O God even thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.
- 2 The wicked and the guilefull mouth
on me discolored be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.
- 3 They did beset me round about with words of hatefull spite:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
5 My good with ill, my friendlinesse
with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him;
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be thereint
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his daies, his charge also let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place,
where erst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the stranger spoile the fruit
of all his toyle before.
12 Let there be none to pitie him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherlesse
will let their mercy fall.

The second Part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroyed:
Their name out-bloated in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickednesse
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remaine for aye:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wefull hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be farre him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himselfe,
so it like water shall Into his bowels, and like oyle into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him
to cover him for aye:
And as a girdle, wherewith he may girded be alway.

20 Lo let the fame be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soule also.

21 But thou O Lord, which art my God, deale thou (I say) with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third Part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade:
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees:
And all her farnesse hath my flesh enforced been to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproach,
to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy Lord
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know sheteby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they understand.
28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with loving voice:
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them be cloathed all with shame,
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poore man by:
To save him from the man that would condemne his soule to die.

PSAL. CX. N.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
fit thou at my right hand:
Till I have made thy foes a steele,
wheron thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the Scepter of thy might:

Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy raigne
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee.
Yea with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all:
Thy births-dew is the dew that doth from womb of moraine fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:
By th' order of Melchisedech
thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay:
Shall wound for thee the stately Kings upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge and fill
the place with bodies dead:
And over diuerse countries shall
in sunder smite the head.
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royall head that day.

PSAL. CXI. N.

With heart I do accord,
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
As him do love and trust.

3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should.
His mercy faileth never.

5 Such as to him love beare,
A portion full faire

He hath up for them laid,
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.

6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plaine,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works ensh'nt
Both judgement, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure

For ever to endure
Which equity doth end Redemption he gave His people for to save

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to faile,
But alwaies to prevaile,
His holy Name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine
True wisdom would attaine,
The Lord feare and obey:
Such as his lawes do keep,
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for aye.

PSAL. CXII. W.K.

The man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his law doth love indeed:
1 His seed on earth God will upreare,
And blesse such as from him proceed,
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darknesse light:
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwaies in his sight
5 Yea pitie moveth such to lend
He doth by judgement things expend.

6 And surely such shall never faile
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm, his feare is fast,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poore provide,
His righteousness shall still remaine:
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain,
10 Yea gnash his teeth thereat shall he
And so consume his state to see.

PSAL. CXIII. W.K.

Ye children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord:

2 Yea blessed be alwaies his Name.

3 Who from the rising of the Sun,
Till it returne where it began,
Is to be praised with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth surmount,
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.

5 With God the Lord who may compare Whose dwellings in the heavens are?
Of such great power and force is he,

He doth abase himself we know,

Things.

Things to behold both here below,
and also in heaven above.
7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which help none saw
His only mercy did him move:
8 And so him set in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity,
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great joy her fruit to reare,
Therefore praise ye his holy Name.

PSAL. CXIII. W.W.

When Israel by Gods addresse,
from Pharaohs land was bent:
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same traine went.
2 In Juda God his glory shewd,
his holinesse most bright:
So did the Israelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.
3 The sea it saw and suddenly,
as all amaz'd did flie:
The roaring streames of Jordans flood recoiled backwardly.
4 As Rams afraid the mountaines skipt,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the filly trembling Lambs
their tops did beat and shake.
What aild the sea as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flie?
2 rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shook ye hills as Rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambs
for feare quiver and quake?
7 O earth confesse thy Sovereigne Lord
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God,
feare ye both sea and land.
8 I mean the God which from hard rocks
doth cause maine floods appeare:
And from the stony flint doth cause,
gush out the fountaines cleare.

PSAL. CXV. N.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy Name give praise:
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee alwaies.
2 Why shall the heathen scorners say,
where is their God become?
3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth and do not speake,
and eyes and do not see.
6 And they have eares joynd to their heads and do not heare at all:
And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withall.
7 And hands they have and handle not,
and feet and do not go:
A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.
8 Those that make them are like to them and those whose trust they be:
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:
11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us blesse also:
On Israel and on Aarons house,
his blessings, he will show.
13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all:
Even he will blesse them every one,
the great and eke the small.
14 To you (I say) the living Lord,
will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say,
Which both the heavens and the earth,
hath made and set in stay.
16 The heavens, yea the heavens high,
belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the sonnes of men,
he gave of free accord:
17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renowne:
Nor any that into the place,
of silence do go downe.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God,
from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

PSAL. CXVI. N.

I love the Lord, because my voice,
and prayer heard hath he:
When in my daies I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
2 Even when the snares of cruell death
about beset me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call and say:

Deliver thou my soul O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and iust he is also:

And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flowe.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be:

I was in wofull misery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul fith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest:

For largely, to the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.

8 Becau^e thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:
My moistned eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:

10 I did believe thefore I spake,
for I was troubled sore.

The second Part.

11 I said in my distresse and fear,
that all men lyars be:

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:

And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayers make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him behight:

Yea even at this present time,
in all his peoples fight.

15 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteem

The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.

16 Thy servant Lord, thy servant I,
I do my self confesse:

Son of thy handmaid thou hast broke the bonds of my distresse.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:

And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord alwaies.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him behight:

Yea even at this present time,
in all his peoples fight.

19 Yea in the courts of Gods own house
and in the midst of thee.

O thou Ierusalem I say:
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

PSAL. CXVII. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwaies:
And all ye people every where set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindnesse is to say:
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

PSAL. CXVIII. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercy dures for aye:

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,
even now confesse and say:

The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.

6 In trouble and in heavinesse unto the Lord I cri'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:

Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them,
that help to succour me:

Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
than in mans mortall seed:

9 Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.

10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:

But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side:
they kept me in I say:

But in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords Name,

I quencht their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me that I indeed might fall:

But through the Lord I found such help,
that they were vanquish'd all.

14 The

14 The Lord is my defence and strength
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to passe great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth most mighty things to passe: (bring His hand hath the preheminance
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die but ever live to utter and declare
The Lord his might & wondrous power
his works and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to expresse:
20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it,

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And are become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me 22 The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that nobel act.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed,
which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with our accords:

26 Blessed is he that comes to us in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
binde ye therefore with cords.
Your sacrifice to the altar:
and give thanks to the Lord,

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise,

thy mercy towards me.

28 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.

PSAL. CXIX. W.W.

A L E P H.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods lawes never start.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandering.

4 It is thy will and commandment that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts,
we learn and keep in deed,

5 O would to God it might thee please
my wayes so to addresse:
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confesse.
6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes
And bend my minde alwayes to muse
on thy sacred decrees,

7 Then will I praise with upright heart and magnifie thy Name
When I shall learn thy judgements just
and likewise prove the same.
8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy laws most right:
For sake me not for ever Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

B E T H. The second Part.

9 By what means may a young man best his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
10 Unlawfully I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me O Lord
from thy precepts to slide.

11 As it is in my heart, and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might nor at any time offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night,
The judgements all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might:
14 Thy testimonies and thy waies,
please me no lesse indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark so will I aime,
thy waves how I may walk.
16 My only joy shall be so fix'd,
and on thy lawes so set:
That nothing can me so far blinde,
that I thy words forget.

G I M E L. The third Part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy Word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandring now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me discloseth,
my foot-steps for to cleare.
20 My soule is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious
then hast destroyed each one:
And curst are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.
22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants with zeale as hot as fire.

23 The Princes great in counsell late,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
24 For why thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve instead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

D A L E T H. The fourth Part.

25 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life againe,
as thy promise is just.
26 My waies when I acknowledged with many thou didst heare:

Heare now of soone, and me instruct thy lawes to love and feare.

27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy love:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
28 My soule I feele so sore oppress'd,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore,
haste Lord to send reliefe.
29 From lying and deceitfull lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found.
I set thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I forc'd my selfe
thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.
32 Then will I run with joyfull cheere
where thy Word doth me call,
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E. The fifth Part.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law:
and I shall it obey:
With heart, and minde, and all my
I will it keep I say. (might)

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me Lord I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From vaine desires and worldly lusts turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power,
to walk thy wayes aright.
38 Confirm thy gracious promise Lord,
which thou hast made to me:
Which am thy servant and do love
and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so feare,
from me O Lord expell:
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
40 Behold my hearts desire is bent thy.

thy lawes to keep for aye:
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it performe I may.

VAV. The sixt Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtaine O Lord:
Thy saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.
42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes
of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithfull promises stands my comfort and trust.
43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilst that breath within my brest
doth naturall life preserve:
Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 Sawalk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keep thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame:
Even before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey thy worthy bests and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still:
48 My hands I will lift to thy lawes,
which I have dearly sought:
And practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

ZAIN. The seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord remember.
For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.
50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assaile:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soone me faile.

51 The proud and such as God contemne
still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorne:
52 But call'd to mind, Lord, thy great work
shew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grieve an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas, for feare I quake, seeing how wicked men

Thy law forsook; and did procure thy judgements upon them.
54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt:
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord;
by night when others sleep:
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtaine, because thy covenants sweet and deare
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with feare.

HETH. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay:
I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and tri'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert:
60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are:
But hastily thy lawes to keep,
I did my selfe prepare.

61 The truell bands of wicked men have made of me their preys:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so hie:
That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which feare thee in their heart:
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.
64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously
do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.

TETH. The ninth Part.

55 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.
66 Teach me to judge alwaies aright,
and give me knowledge sure:
For certainly beleve I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
 I err'd and went astray:
 But now I keep thy holy Word,
 and make it all my stay.
 68 Thou art both good and gracious,
 and giv'st most liberally:
 Thine ordinances how to keep,
 therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd against me many a lie:
 Yet thy commandments still observe
 with all my heart will I.
 70 Their hearts are swolne with worldlv
 as greafe so are they fat. (wealth)
 But in thy law do I delight,
 and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
 when thou didst me correct:
 For as a guide to learne thy law,
 thy rod did me direct.
 72 So that to me thy word and law,
 is dearer manifold:
 Then thousands of silver and gold,
 or ought that can be told.

F O D. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me Lord,
 to be thy creature:
 Grant knowledge likewise how to learn to put thy lawes in ure.
 74 So they that feare thee shall rejoyce,
 when ever they me see:
 Because I have learn'd by thy Word,
 to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is (plagu'd)
 I know the cause is just:
 So when thou dost correct me Lord,
 the cause just needs be must.
 76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
 some comfort to me send:
 As thou to me hast promised,
 so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies powre on me,
 and I shall surely live:
 For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give. (censure) 78 Confound the proud whose false pre-is me for to destroy:
 But as for me thy hefts to know,
 I will my selfe employ.

79 Who so with reverence do thee feare,
 to me let them retire:
 And such as do thy covenants know,
 and them alone desire.
 80 My heart without all wavering
 let on thy lawes be bent:
 That no confusion come to me,
 whereby I should be shent.

C A P N. The eleventh Part.

81 My soule doth faint and ceaseth not,
 thy saving health to crave:
 And for thy words sake still I trust,
 my hearts desire to have.
 82 Mine eyes do faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
 O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
 why dost thou thus delay?
 83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke
 so am I parcht and dri'd:
 Yet will I not out of my heart
 let thy commandments slide.
 84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
 before I see the houre,
 That on my foes which me torment,
 thy vengeance thou wilt poure?
 85 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
 thinking to make me sure:
 Thus contrary against thy law
 my hurt they do procure.
 86 But thy commandments are all true,
 and causelesse they me grieve:
 To thee therefore I do complaine,
 that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost they had me cleane destruid,
 and brought me quite to ground:
 Yet by thy statutes I abode,
 and therein succour found.
 88 Restore me Lord againe to life,
 for thy mercies excell:
 And so shall I thy covenants keep,
 till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou dost dwell,
 thy word is stabliht sure:
 And shall for all eternity
 fast graven there endure.
 90 From age to age thy truth abides,
 as doth the earth witnesse:
 Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure
 as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see,
 how all things persevere
 According to thine ordinance,
 for all things thee do feare.
 92 Had it not been that in thy law
 my soule had comfort sought:
 Long time ere now in my distresse,
 I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye
 in memory keep fast:
 By them thou hast my life restord
 when I was at last cast.
 94 No wight to me can title make,
 for I am onely thine:

Save me therefore, for to thy lawes,
mine cares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,

But I the while considered thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end:

But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.

M E M. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love
do I beare to thy law?

All the day long I meditate on it with reverent awe.

98 Thy word hath taught me far to passe
my foes in policie:

For still I hold it as a thing of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:

Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do passe also the ancient men indeed:

And all because to keep thy lawes,
I held it aye best need.

101 My feet I have refrained else
from every evill way:

Because that I continually thy word might keep, I say. (ments,

102 I have not swerv'd from thy judge.
nor yet shrunk any dell:

For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet unto my taste
finde I thy words alway:

Doubtlesse no honey in my mouth feel ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy lawes have me such wisdom that utterly I hate: (learn'd

All wicked and ungodly waies,
in every kinde or rate.

N V N. The fourteenth Part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy Word shine bright:

And to my paths where ever I go,
it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will performe
my promises doubtlesse,

That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress,
and brought me to dearks doore:

O Lord as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and most frankly I thee give, (voice Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assaile:

Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will faile.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
to catch me at a bay:

Yet did I not from thy precepts
once twerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
as mine own heritage:

And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage:

112 For evermore I have been bent thy statutes to fulfill:

Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The fifteenth Part.

113 The crafty thoughts & double heare
I do alwaies detest:

But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:

Therefore have I thy promises
look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men;
depart from me anon:

For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd, so performe,
that death me not assaile:

Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
for ought they do or say:

And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet,
as do thy statutes break:

For nought availes their subtilty,
their counsell is but weak.

119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out where ere they go or dwell:

Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing halfe so well.

120 My flesh alas is taken with feare,
as though it were bestrum'd:

For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one aston'd.

A I N. The sixteenth Part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,

and

and give to all men righte Resigne me not to them that would,
oppresse me with their might.
122 But for thy servant surety be,
in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foile,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.
124 Intreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him shew:
Thy statutes of most excellency,
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant (Lord) I am,
grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
for truth is quite decayd:
Thy law likewise they have transgressed,
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy lawes better than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.
128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious waies
I do abhorre therefore.

P E. The seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
and full of things profound:
My soule therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are tri'd and found.
130 When men first enter into thy word,
they finde a light most cleare:
And very idiots understand,
when they it reade or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd,
to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my selfe thereby,
I sought what thing it ment.
132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above:
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy Name feare and love.

133 Direct my foot-steps by thy Word,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity
thy servant overthrow. (harms) 134 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserve and keep me suret Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure. (moun)

135 Thy countenance which doth fur-
the Sunne in his bright hue:

Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eschew.
136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush out of dreary teares that fall:
When I behold how wicked men
thy lawes keep not at all.

T Z A D I. The eighteenth Part.

137 In every point Lord thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous Judge.
138 To render right and flee from guile,
are two chiefe points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law commanded us straightly.

139 With zeale and wrath I am consumed and even pin'd away:
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet do I not thy lawes forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most just,
for ever to endure:
Also thy Law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe have seiz'd on me
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still all thy precepts delight to heare and know.
144 The righteousness of thy judgements
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H. The nineteenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I cald and cry'd,
now answer me O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my suite with most humble requests:
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy befts.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn;
before the day waxe light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole pight.
148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake:
That by devising on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eyes to heare my voice,
and pitie on me take:
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw neare, and do procure
my death maliciously:
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and straid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord, approach thou near for need doth so require,
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire. (learn'd 152 But thy commandments have I not now, but long ago:
That they remaine for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H. The twentieth Part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send:
From death (as thou hast promised)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, farre they are from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant,
what tongue can them attaine:
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy lawes I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is for griefe I die,
when I these traitors see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy lawes,
with heart most glad and fine:
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
restore my life againe.
160 What thy word doth decree, must be
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

S C H I N. The xxi. Part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causelesse to make me crouch:
But all in vaine, for of thy word
the feare did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,

Than he that of rich spoiles and prey great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest:
For why thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull,
so cause me to rejoyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such have,
as do thy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state
empaire or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy lawes have been mine exercise which my soule most desir'd:
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd.
168 Thy statutes and commandments,
I kept (thou know'st) aright:
For all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

T A V. The xxii. Part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and cry
before thy face appeare:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.
170 Mine humble supplication, toward thee let finde access:
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and in this wise say shall: (word, Gods famous acts and noble lawes
are just and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save:
For thy commandments to observe chosen O Lord I have.
174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to live
thy Name to magnifie:
And of thy judgements mercifull
let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray,

much

much like a wandring sheep:
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

PSAL. CXX. T.S.

IN trouble and in thrall
Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.

2 Deliver me, I say,
From lyars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.

3 What vantage or what thing
Get't thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering lyar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No lesse then arrowes keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name;
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Isaacs sect
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hare,
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life.

7 But when my tale was told,
Causesse I was controld
By them that would have strife.

PSAL. CXXI. W.W.

ILift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep:

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch:
But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover,
As at thy right hand ever.

6 The Sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone not halfe so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distresse
And will thy life sure save,
And thou shalt also have

8 In all thy businesse good successe:
Where ever thou goest in or our,
God will thy things bring about,

PSAL. CXXII. W.K.

IDid in heart rejoyce,
To heare the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly:
For let us up say they,
And in the Lords house pray,
Thus spake the folk full lovingly.

2 Our feet that wandred wide, ,
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full faire:

3 Which art so seemly set
Much like a City neat,
The like whereof is not else where:!

4 The Tribes with one accord,
The Tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take;
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintaine;
To Davids house pertaine.
His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily!

7 Peace be thy wals about,
And prosper thee throughout Thy palaces continually.

8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poore brethrens sake,
That comfort have by meanes of thee

9 Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much alwaies as lies in me.

PSAL. CXXIII. T.S.

O Lord that heaven dost possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant listeth his,
his masters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their mistris hands
some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion;
and mercy in thy sight:
For we are si'd and overcome with hatred and despight.

4 Our mindes be stuf with great rebuke;
the rich and worldly-wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

PSAL.

PSAL. CXXIV. W.W.

Now Israel
may say and that truly:
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd;
3 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world
against us furiously
Made their uprores,
and said we should all die.

4 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all;
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteeme.
4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall;

5 The raging streames
most proud in roaring noise.
Had long ago
overwhelm'd us in the deepe.
6 But loved be God,
which doth us safely keep
From bloody teeth,
and their most cruell voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the Fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.
8 God that made heaven,
and earth is our help then;
His Name hath sav'd
us from their wicked men.

PSAL. CXXV. W.K.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand,
The Lord will count them right and just
So that they shall be sure,
For ever to endure.

2 As mighty mountaines, huge and great Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so deare,
They never need to feare.

3 For though the righteous try doth he,

By making wicked men his rod:
Left they through grief forsake their God
It shall not as their lot still be.

4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right;

5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked waies which they out-sought:
The Lord will surely bring to nought;
With workers vile they shall abide;
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R.W.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And fie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery:
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone;
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them;
To hurt that towne in any case:
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end;

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly,
The sinners and ungodlies rod,
To tarry upon his family.
Left they also from God should go;
Falling to sin and wickednesse:
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness;

• O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy Word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell;
God will them send paines without end;
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the Holy Ghost whose light
Shine in our hearts, and us succour,
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie:
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and Amen cry.

PSAL. CXXVI. W.W.

When that the Lord
again his Sion had forthbrought
From

From bondage great
and also servitude extreme His work was such as did surmount mans heart and
So that we were (thought,
much like to them that use to dream,
Our mouthes were
with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyfull men.

2 The heathen folk were forced then this to confesse
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.
3 But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to joy,
we have good cause as we begun.
4 O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

5 Full true it is,
that they which sowe in tears indeed,
A time will come,
when they shall reap in mirth & joy.
6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy
But their returne
with joy they shall sure see Their sheaves home bring,
and not empaired be.

PSAL. CXXVII. W.W.

Except the Lord the house doth make
And thereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vaine men undertake,
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morne,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worne:
But they whom God doth love and keep,
Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see,
That men have heires to enjoy their land
It is the gift of Gods own hand.
For God himselve doth multiply,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and actiuenesse,
In person and in comelinesse:

So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm,

5 O well is he that hath his quiver
Furnish'd with such artillerie:
For when in perill he shall be,
Such one shall never shake nor shive;
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Against his foes that beare him grudge.

PSAL. CXXVIII. T.S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou I say.
3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house side,
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants,
thy table round about.
4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see
to thy great joyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

PSAL. CXXIX. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assail'd:
2 Oft they assail'd me from my youth;
yet never they prevail'd.
3 Upon my back the plowers plow'd,
and furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous God hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last.
5 They that hate me shall be asham'd,
and turned back also:
6 And made as grasse upon the house,
which withereth ere it grow.
7 Whercof the mower cannot finde
enough to fill his hand:
Ner can he fill his lap that go'th
to gleane upon the land.
8 Nor passers by pray God on them
to let his blessing fall:
Nor say, we blesse you in the Name
of God the Lord at all.

PSAL. CXXX. W.W.

Lord to thee I make my mone,
when dangers me oppresse:
I call, I sigh, plaine and grone,
trusting to find release.

2 Heare now O Lord my request,
for it is full due time:
And let thine ears aye be prest,
unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou weigh
our sins and them peruse:
Who then shall escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?

4 But, Lord thou art mercifull,
and turnst to us thy grace:
That we with hearts most carefull
should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soule waites on his will:
For his promise is most just,
and I hope therein still.

6 My soule to God hath regard,
waiting for him alway,
More then they that watch and ward
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly,
in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy,
that his deliver must.

8 For he it is that must save
Israel from his sin:
And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

PSAL. CXXXL. N.

O Lord I am not puffed in minde,
I have no scornfull eyet
I do not exercise my selfe
in things that be too high.

2 But as the childe that wained is,
even from his mothers brest:
So have I Lord behav'd my selfe
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay:
From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I say.

PSAL. CXXXII. M.

Remember Davids troubles Lord,
how to the Lord he swore:

2 And vowed a vow to Jacobs God,
to keepe for evermore.

3 I will not come within my house,
nor climbe up to my bed,
Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head.

Till I have found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata;
there did we heare this sound:
And in the fields and forests there,
these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in now
his Tabernacle there:
Before his foot-stool to fall down,
and worship him in feare.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
into thy resting place:
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy Saints and holy men sing all with joyfullnesse.

10 And for thy servant Davids sake
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second Part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth
and will not shrink from it; Saying, the fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sonnes my covenant keep,
that I shall learne each one:
Then shall thy sonnes for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Sion,
and loves therein to dwell:
Saying, this is my resting place,
I love and like it well.

14 And I will blesse with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

15 Yea I will deck and clothe her Priests
with my salvation:
And all her Saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

16 There will I surely make the horns
of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lanterne bright and good.

17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh than heretofore.

PSAL. CXXXIII. W.W.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyfull sort to see Brethren together fast to hold the band of amity!

It calls to minde that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the Sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout;
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.
And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Sion with her silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill.

Even so the Lord doth powre on them
his blessings manifold:
Whose hearts & mindes without al guide
this knot do keep and hold.

PSAL. CXXXIIII. W.W.

BEhold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord:
Which in his house by night do watch,
praise him with one accord.
Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place:
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

For why the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame,
both Sion blesse, and will conserve for evermore the same.

PSAL. CXXXV. N.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise praise him with one accord: (him, praise him still all ye that be the servants of the Lord.
O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:
Of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his Name:
his a comely and good thing,
alwaies to do the same.
For why? the Lord hath Jacob chose,
to be his own ye see:
and he hath chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.

For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:
he is indeed above all gods,
most easie to intreat.
For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well he wrought

In heaven, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds ev'n from the earth,
he makes lightnings and raine:
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in vaine.

8 He smote the first-borne of each thing,
in Egypt great and least:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts:
On Pharaoh thy cursed King,
and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations,
and did most wondrous things:
He slew the great, the mightiest,
and chiefest of their Kings.

11 Sihon King of the Amorites,
and Og King of Bashan:
He slew also the kingdomes all that were of Canaan.

12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage to be,
To Israel his own people
an heritage gave he.

The second Part.

13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endure
and thy memoriall

Throughout all generations
that are or ere be shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed:
And to his servants he will shew favour in time of need.

15 The idols of the heathen are made in all the coasts and lands
Of silver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouthes and cannot and eyes that have no sight: (speak, 17 They have eke ears and hear nothing,
their mouthes be breathlesse quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that so do set them forth:
And likewise those that trust in them,
or think they be ought worth.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord:
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.

21 And out of Sion sound his praise.

the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.

PSAL. CXXXVI. N.

16 Through wilderness his people led,

17 He which did smite great noble kings,

20 And Og the King of Basan land,
for his mercy, &c.
21 And gave their land for heathen;
for his mercy, &c.
22 Even to his servant Israel,
for his mercy, &c.
23 Remembring us in base estate;
for his mercy, &c.
24 And from oppressors rescued us;
for his mercy, &c.
25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
for his mercy, &c.
26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,

for his mercy, &c.

- 27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords;
for his mercy, &c.

Another of the same by T. C.

O Laud the Lord benigne,
Whose mercies last for aye;
Give thanks and praises sing
To God of gods I say.
2 For certainly,
His mercies dure
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.

- 3 The Lord of lords praise ye;
Whose mercies aye do dure;
4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great power;
For certainly,
His mercies dure
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.

Which God omnipotent;
By his great wisdom he,
The heavenly firmament
Did frame, as we may see;
For certainly, &c.

Of all the earth did stretch;
And on the waters large
The same he did out-reach;
For certainly, &c.

For why? his love is aye;
8 Such as the Sun we see,
To rule the lightsome day.
For certainly, &c.

- 9 And eke the Moone so cleare;
Which shineth in our sight,
And Starres that do appeare,
To guide the darksome night;
For certainly, &c.

- 10 With grievous plagues and sore
All Egypt smote he then;
The first-borne leste and more,
He slew of beast and man.
For certainly, &c.

- 11 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought;
12 Which he with mighty hand,
And stretched arme hath wrought;
For certainly, &c.

- 13 The sea he cut in two,
Which stood up like a wall;
14 And made through it to go

His chosen children all,
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud King Pharaoh,
With his huge host of men,
And chariots eke also,
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderness;
His people safe and sound;
And for his love endlesse,
17 Great Kings he brought to ground.
For certainly, &c.

18 And slew with puissant hand
Kings mighty and of fame,
19 As of Amorites land,
Sehon the King by name,
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og (the Gyant large)
Of Bashan King also;
21 Whose land for heritage,
He gave his people tho.
For certainly, &c.

22 Even unto Israel,
His servant deare, I say,
He gave the same to dwell;
And there abide for ay.
For certainly, &c.

23 To minde he did us call;
In our most base degree,
24 And from oppressors all
In safety set us free.
For certainly, &c.

With food he doth fulfill;

PSAL. CXXXVII. W.W

When as we sat in Babylon,
the rivers round about:
And in remembrance of Sion,
the teares for grieve burst out.
3 We hang'd our harpes and instruments
the willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

4 Then they to whom we prisoners were said to us tauntingly:
Now let us heare your Hebrew songs.

and pleasant melody.

4 Alas said we, who can once frame
his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
be ti'd for ever fast:
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the curst noise and cry
That Edoms sonnes against us made,
when they raz'd our city.
Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On sack and raze their walls,
in despight of the Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young:
To dash their bones against hard stones;
that lie the streets among.

PSAL. CXXXVIII. N.

Thou wilt I praise with my whole
my Lord my God alwaies: (heart
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holy Temple; I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth
thy holy Name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindnesse sake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy Name hast by thy Word advanced over all.

3 When I did call, thou heardest me;
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength within my soule to grow.

4 Yea all the Kings on earth they shall give praise to thee O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the wales of God the Lord
in singing shall intreat Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowly sprites:

But he (contemning) knowes afarre
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand, Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand,

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be By thy right hand: the Lord God will performe his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

PSAL. CXXXIX. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and known,
my fitting thou dost know,
2 And rising eke, my thoughts afarre
thou understand'st also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compass'est alwaies:
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:
5 Thou me behinde hold'st and before,
thou lay'st thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is so high, that I the same cannot attaine untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go?
Or whither shall I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To Heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there:
In Hell if I lie downe below,
even there thou dost appeare;

9 Yea let me take the morning wings,
and let me goe and hide
Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide.
10 Yea even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darkest shall yet shroud me from thy sight Lo even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.
12 Yea darknesse hideth not from thee;
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darknesse and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second Part.

13 For thou possessed hast my reines;
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers wombe
inclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearefully
and wondrously I am:
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soule doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee;
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formlesse, then thine eyes saw me, for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
how deare are they to me?
And of them all how passing great
the endlesse number be!

18 If I should count them, lo their summe
more than the sand I see:
And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men;
O that thou wouldest slay:
Even those O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I say.

20 Even those of thee (O Lord my God)
that speak full wickedly:
Those that are lifted up in vaine,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise?

22 I hate them with unfained hate,
even as my utter foes:

23 Trie me (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider Lord if wickednesse
in me there any be:
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

PSAL. CXL. N.

O Lord save me from the evill man,
and from the cruel wight Deliver me, which evil do imagine in their sprite.

2 Which make on me continuall warre;
their tongues loe they have whet
3 Like Serpents, underneath their lips is Adders poyson set.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands preserve me to abide:
Free from the cruell man that meanes
to cause my steps to slide.
5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and gins
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Hear me O Lord, O heare the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me:
My head in day of battell hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his desire:
Performe not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compasse me about,
the chiefest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

10 Let coales fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame:
And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.
11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight:
And evill to destruction still shall haunt the cruell wight.

12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will sevenge, and judge the poore:
13 The just shall praise thy name, and shall dwell with thee overmore.

PSAL. CXLI. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haste thee unto me:
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.
2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth,
set thou a watch before:
And also of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the doore.
4 That I should wicked works commit,
incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me Lord,
for that is good for me:

Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyle shall be.
Such imiting shall not breake my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down their Judges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then they have a pleasant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth,
lo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soule forsaken be.

9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the snare:
And from the subtil grins of them that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

PSAL. CXLII. N.

Before the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his fight
to powre I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walke, a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I look'd and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for my soule none care did show.

5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and said:
my hope thou only art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

6 Hearke to my cry, for I am brought full low: deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul
from prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me, the just shall presse me round about.

PSAL. CXLIII. N.

Lord heare my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee:

Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy servant Lord,
O enter not at all:

For justified be in thy sight,
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soule;
my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred sprite:
And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate:

Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord, my God, loe I do stretch my craving hand:
My soule desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Heare me with speed, my spirit doth hide not thy face me from:
Els shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindnesse in the morning heare and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soule to thee;
O Lord deliver me

From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say:

Let thy good Spirit into the land of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickning alive do thou me make:

And out of trouble bring my soule,
even for thy justice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all

That do oppresse my soule: for I thy servant am and shall.

PSAL. CXLIII. N.

Bless'd be the Lord my strength, & doth instruct my hands to fight:

The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battell by his might.

2 He is my goodnesse, fort and tower;
deliverer and shield:
In him I trust, my people he abduces to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in pride:

Or sonne of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanity,
so passe his daies to end,

5 As fleeting shade. Bow down O Lord
the heavens, and descend.

6 The mountains touch, and they shall cast forth thy lightning flame;
And scatter them: thine arrowes shoot,
consume them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand ev'n from above;
O Lord deliver me:

Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanity,
and fondnesse doth intreat:
And their right hand is a right hand
of falshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing O God, and singing will I be On Violl, and on instruments,
ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings:

Unto his servant David help from hurtfull sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save & shield;
whose mouth talks vanity:
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That our sons may be as the plants;
whom growing youth doth reare:
Our daughters as carv'd & ruer-stones,
like to a palace faire.

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found,
Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:

There be no goings out, nor cries
within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:
Yea, blessed all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

PSAL. CXLV. N.

Thee will I laud my God and King;
and blesse thy Name for ay:

- 3 For ever will I praise thy Name,
and blesse thee day by day.
3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatnesse none can reach:
4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.
5 Of thy glorious Majesty
the beauty will record.
And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull O Lord.
6 And they shall of thy power and of thy fearfull acts declare:
And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatnesse will not spare.
7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great:
And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow.
9 Yea good to all, and all his works
his mercy doth exceed:
10 Let all thy works do praise thee Lord,
and do thy honour spread.
11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glory show:
12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of men thy power to know.

The second Part.

- 13 And of his mighty kingdom eke
to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is that doth endure alwaies:
And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.
14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall
their sliding he doth stay.
15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou dost them all relieve:
And thou to each sufficing food
in season due dost give.
16 Thou openest thy plentiful hand,
and bounteously dost fill
All things whatsoever do live,
with gifts of thy good will.
17 The Lord is just in all his waies,
his works are holy all:
18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the desires which they require,
that feare him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they cry,
and save them all he will.
20 The Lord preserves all those to him

that beare a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subvert.
21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord:
All flesh to praise his holy Name,
for ever shall accord.

PSAL. CXLVI. LN.

- MY soul praise thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confesse:
2 While breath and life prolong my daies,
my tongue no time shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly Princes then,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.
4 For whither their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsell of their heart
decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aide:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deep
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth and ever shall.
7 With right alwaies doth he proceede
for such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.
8 The Lord doth send the blinde their
the lame to limbe restore: ^(sight)
The Lord (I say) doth love the right, and just man evermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger sad in heart:
And quit the widow from distresse,
and all mens waies subvert.
10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall raigne:
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remaine.

PSAL. CXLVII. N.

- PRaise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.
2 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up a tower:
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.

- 3 He heales the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he binde :
- 4 He counts the number of the starres,
and names them in their kinde.
- 5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite
- 6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
- 7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoyce:
And to our God upon the Harp,
advance your singing voice.
- 8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for
the earth prepareth raine:
And on the mountaines he doth make
the grass to grow againe.
- 9 He gives to beasts their feed, and to young Ravens when they cry:
- 10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
- 11 But in all those that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight:
And such as doe attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second Part.

- 12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem;
thy God O Sion praise:
- 13 For he the barres hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he staies.
- 14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.
- 15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
- 16 He giveth snow like wooll, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:
- 17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
- 18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them againe:
His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow againe.
- 19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show:
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.
- 20 With every Nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSAL. CXLVIII. I.H.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high:
Praise him in deed and word,

Above the starrie skie;
2 And also ye,
His Angels all
Armies royall.
Praise him with glee;

- 3 Praise him both Moone and Sun;
Which are so cleare and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering starres of light
4 And eke no lesse,
Ye heavens faire,
5 And clouds of the skie,
His laud expresse.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appeare
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast,
To them he made
A law and trade
for aye to last.

7 Extoll and praise Gods Name;
On earth ye Dragons fell:
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well,
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, haile, ice, snow,
And stormes that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountaines all
And trees that fruibfull are:
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declare.
10 Beasts and cattell,
Yea birds flying,
And wormes creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and lesse
With all their pompons traines:
Princes and all Judges
That in the world remaine, Exalt his Name.
12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is farre above
The earth and firmament.
14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horne of his,
And help them all.

15 His Saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse:
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse.

16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

PSAL. CXLIX. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
a new rejoycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard his holy Saints among.
2 Let Israel rejoyce in him,
that made him of nothing
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyfull in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name: (trute;
And with the timbrell and the harp
sing praises of the same.
4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliverance he will raise the meeke to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour now
let all his Saints rejoyce:
And now aloud upon their beds advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouthes let be the acts of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double-edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To binde their stately Kings in chains,
their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doome
that writen is before:
This honour all his Saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CL. N.

Yeeld unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his Sanctuary:
And praise him in the firmament
that shewes his power on hie.
2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwaies:
According to his excellency
of greatnesse give him praise.
3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the Violl, and upon the Harp also.
4 Praise him with timbrell and with flute
Organs and Virginals:
5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cymbals.
6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
To praise the Name of God the Lord,
agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalmes of DAVID in Meeter.

A Song to bee sung before morning prayer. T.B

Praise ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and-right.

For he is full determined on us to poure out his mercy:
And the Lords truth be ye assur'd,
abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and unto Jesus Christ his Sonner
With the Holy Ghost in like manner,
now and at every season.

A Song to be Sung before
Evening prayer.

BEhold now give heed such as be the Lords servants faithfull & true:
Come praise the Lord every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our owne Gods mansion:
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night:
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his Give to you and your nation, (power)
his blessing, mercy, and favour.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

The ten Commandements of God. Exod. 20. W.W.

Attend my people and give care,
Of ferly things I will thee tell:
See that my words in minde thou beare,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy soveraigne Lord and God,
Which have thee brought fro careful thral
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

3 Take not in vaine his holy Name,
Abuse it not after thy will,
For so thou might'st soone purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spill. (ceast)

4 The Lord from work the seventh day
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hefts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long daies and good maist live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murther and cruell hate.

7 All filthy fornication feare.

8 See thou steale not in any rate.

9 False witnesse against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his Oxe, his Ass, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant us O Lord,
To keep these lawes our hearts restore,
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy Names sake grant us this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwaies,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Cox.

Our Father which in Heaven art,
And mak'st us all one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh and groan.

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poore sheep.

Thy kingdome come even at this houre
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine Holy Ghost into us poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Sathans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevaile against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from bloud-shed,
Also from sicknesse, dearth and pine.
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefullnesse.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull consciences.
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee,
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage
To withstand his invasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arme and make strong thy feeble host
With faith and with the Holy Ghost.

O Lord from evill deliver us,
The daies and times are dangerous.
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our soules receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universall.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praied with one accord.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belife and confidence is in the Lord of might:
The Father which all things hath made
the day and eke the night.
The heavens and the firmament,
and also every starre,
The earth and all that is therein,
which passe mans reason farre.

And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Sonnes Coequall with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone.
Conceived by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary borne,
yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankinde to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall:
He came and offered up himselfe
to death to save us all.
And suffering most grievous paine,
then Pilate being Judge:
Waycrucified on the Crosse,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit:
His body then was buried,
as is our use and right.
His soule did after this descend
into the lower parts:
A dread unto the wicked spirits,
but joy to faithfull hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life againe:
To th'end he might be glorified,
out of all grieve and paine.
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still.
On Gods right hand his Father deare,
according to his will.

Untill the day of judgement come,
when he shall come againe With Angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertaine)
To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearely bought:
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
(my faith to satisfie)
The third person in Trinity,
believe I stedfastly.
The holy and Catholike Church,
that Gods Word doth maintaine:
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death:
Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise againe
before the Lord of might:
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide:
And give life everlastingly,
to those whom he hath tried,
Within his Realme celestiall,
in glory for to rest:
With all his holy company
of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serve the Lord omnipotent obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for evermore.

A prayer to the Holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy Word aright,
that we do never fall.
O Holy Ghost visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield:
Against all sin and wickednesse,
Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our King and his Councell, and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.
O Lord that giv'st thy holy Word,
send Preachers plentifully:
That in the same we may accord,
and therein live and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word:
That thou by them maist cut down sin,
as it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy Pastours pure,
but aid them at their need,
Which breake to us the bread of life,
whereon our Soules do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity:
Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all Papisry.
Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light,
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increas our faith in us,
and love so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations farre and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most:
The living Father and the Sonne,
and eke the Holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem Domine.

Give peace in these our daies O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord,
Christs name in every land,
Seek to deface,
Root out and race
Thy true right worship indeeds:
Be thou the stay,
Lord we thee pray,
Thou helpst alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack
Through misbeleefe and ill life:
Thy Word to offer thou dost not slack
Which we unkindly gain-strive,
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word.
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth,
Confesse the truth
Without sincere godlinesse.

Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send
With griefe and repentance true,
Pierce thou our hearts, our lives amend,
And by faith in Christ renew.
That feare and dread,
Warre and bloud-shed,
Through thy sweet mercy, and grace,
May from us slide,
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust,
Give care unto my wo full cry.

The Lamentation.

Refuse me not that am unjust,
but bowing down thy heavenly eye;
Behold how I do still lament,
my sinnes wherein I do offend:
O Lord for them shall I be shent?
sith thee to please I do intend.

No, no, not so, thy will is bent,
to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grantst with speed their just desire.
To thee therefore still shall I crie,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,
but that it may help me in time.

Masse thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
to poure on me thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall sit away,
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou dost raigne eternally, with God which once did down thee send Where Angels sing continually,
to thee be praise world without end.

A Thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords Supper.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts
and mercies evermore,
That he doth shew unto his Saints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he of right deserves:
Our hearts cannot of him so think,
as he us all preserves.

His benefits, they be so great
to us that be but sin:
That at our hands for recompence,
there is no hope to win.
O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst have,
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou dost deserve more worthily
of him to be abhord.

Nought els but sin and wretchedness
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord
we daily play our parts.
The Sun above in firmament,
that is to us a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,
than we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein
more holy are than we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree.
They doe not strive for mastership,
nor slack their office set:
But serve the Lord and do his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe:
It doth observe the Formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein
doth bend when God doth beck:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull check.

But we alas for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Mule.
A Law he gave for us to know
what was his holy will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:
Nor doth the thing that might us lead
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie:
And he againe of his good will would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none
to bring us unto life:
The Son of God our flesh he took,
to end our mortall strife,
And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:
And for our sins upon the Crosse
his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget
what good he to us wrought:
A signe he left our eyes to tell,
that he our bodies bought:
In Bread and Wine here visible,
unto thine eyes and taste,
His mercies great thou maist record,
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As once the corne did live and grow,
and was cut down with sicke,
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:
And as the mill with violence,
did reare it out so small:
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the oven with fire hot
did close it up with hear:
And all this done that I have said,
that it should be our meat.
So was the Lord in his ripe age
cut down by cruell death:
His soule he gave in torments great,
and yielded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread:
With much reproach and troubles great
on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very sore:
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the juyce that in them is,
as comfortable drink;
We might receive and joyfull be,
when sorrowes make us shrink:
So Christ his blood out pressed was
with nailes and eke with speare:
The juyce thereof doth save all those that rightly do him feare.

And as the cornes by unity
into one loafe are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heaven sit.
As many grapes make but one wine:
so should we be but one:
In faith and love in Christ above,
and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:
From envy and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew
that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life,
as alwaies willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure
with him to have a place.

R. W.

PReserve us Lord by thy deare words,
From Turk and Pope defend us Lord:
Which both would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Jesus Christ thy deare Sonne.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of Lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God Holy Ghost our Comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three,
Thy Name be prais'd in unity:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

A FORME OF PRAYER TO be vsed in priuate houses euery Mor- ning and Euening.

Morning Prayer.

Almighty God, and most mercifull Father, we do not present our selues here before thy Maiestie, trusting in our owne merits or worthinesse, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to heare our prayers & grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, who hath also commanded vs to assemble our selues together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst vs, but also be our Mediator and Aduocate towards thy Maiestie, that we may obtaine all things which shall seeme expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most mercifull Father) to turne thy louing countenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manifold sinnes and offences, whereby we iustly deserue thy wrath and sharpe punishment: but rather receiue vs to thy mercie, for Iesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a iust recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with vs. And seeing that of thy great mercies we haue quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy seruice, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds may redound to the glorie of thy Name, and good ensample to all men, who seeing our good workes, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy meere fauour and loue, thou hast not onely created vs to thine owne similitude & likeness, but also hast chosen vs to be heirs with thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, of that immortal kingdome, which thou preparedst for vs before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thine holy Spirit, that we may in the meane time liue in godly conuersation and integritie of life, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, couetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons and such like, shall not inherite the kingdome of God.

And because thou hast commanded vs to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selues, and them that thou hast already called to the true vnderstanding of thine heavenly wil, but for all people and nations of the world; who as they know by thy wonderful workes that thou art God ouer all, so they may be instructed by thine holy Spirit to beleue in thee their onely Saviour and Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot beleue except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise vp faithfull distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seeke thy glory. Contrarily confound Sathan, Antichrist, with all hirings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schismes, hereses & errors, disquiet thy little flocke. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the vpper hand, and Sathan by his ministers seekes by all meanes to quench the light of thy Gospel; we beseech thee to maintaine thy cause against those rauening wolues, and strengthen all thy seruants whom they keepe in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyrannie, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great miserie. For thy people Israel many times by their sinnes provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy iust iudgement; yet though their sinnes were neuer so grievous, if they once returned from their

their iniquitie, thou receivest them to mercie. We therefore most wretched sinners bewaile our manifold finnes, and earnestly repent vs for our former wickednes and vngodly behauiour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selues purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies vpon vs, and receiue vs againe to thy fauour. Grant vs (deare Father) these our requests, and all other things necessarie for vs and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Iesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught vs, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father euermlasting and full of pitie, we acknowledge and confesse that we be not worthy to lift vp our eyes to heauen, much lesse to present our selues before thy Maiestie, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers & grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse vs, and our finnes do witnesse against vs, and we know that thou art an vpright Iudge, which doest not iustifie the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgresse thy commandments. Yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command vs to call on thee in all our troubles and aduersities, promising euen then to helpe vs when we feeble ourselues (as it were) swallowed vp of death and desperation, we vtterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to thy soueraigne bountie as our onely stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold finnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually prouoke thy wrath and indignation against vs: neither our negligence and vnkindnesse, which haue neither worthily esteemed, nor in our liues sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospell revealed vnto vs: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Iesus Christ, who by offering vp his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our finnes. Haue mercie therefore vpon vs, O Lord, & forgive vs our offences. Teach vs by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, & earnestly repent for the same: and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call vpon thy name; but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungry and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our Father, and we thy children: thou art our Shepheard, and we thy flocke: thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish vs, but mercifully chastise vs with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his finnes from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickednesse out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophet.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to trauel in, grant (deare Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our soules may continually watch for the time that our Lord Iesus Christ shall appeare for our deliuerance out of this mortall life: and in the meane season that we not overcome by any fantasies, dreames, or other temptations, may fully set our minds vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleepe be not excessiue or ouermuch, after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weake nature, that we may be the better disposed to line in all godly conuersation, to the glory of thine holy name and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be giuen to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most deare Father of beauen, for all thy mercies and loving kindnesse shewed vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine owne accord to elect and chuse vs to saluation before the beginning of the world. And euen like continuall thanks be giuen to thee, for creating vs after thine owne image, for redeeming vs with the precious blood of thy deare Son, when we were vtterly lost: for sanctifying vs with thy holy Spirit, in the reuelation and knowledge of thy holy word: for helping and succouring vs in all our needs & necessities: for sauing vs from all dangers of bodie & soule: for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions: for sparing vs so long, and giuing vs so large a time of repentance. These benefites, O most mercifull Father, like as we acknowledge to haue received the of thy only goodnesse, euen so we beseech thee for thy thy deare Son Iesus Christs sake, to grant vs alwaies thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all aduerfities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in feruentnesse and loue towards thee, and our neighbors for thy sake. Suffer vs not most deare Father, to receiue thy word any more in vaine: but grant vs alwaies the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name: helpe to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, & whatſoeuer thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let vs not lacke the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serue thee: but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands, that we may haue sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpfull vnto others. Be mercifull, O Lord, to our offences: and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven vs in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee & our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, captaine and defender in all temptations: hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand, that we may be deliuered from all inconueniences, and end our liues in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Iesus Christ our Lord and onely Sauour.

Let thy mightie hand and out-stretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercie & louing-kindnesse in Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne our saluation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, vnto the end, and in the end. So be it.

Lord increase our faith.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternal God and most mercifull Father, we confesse & acknowledge here before thy diuine Maiestie, that we are miserable sinners, conceived & borne in sinne and iniquitie, so that in vs there is no goodnesse. For the flesh euermore rebellet against the Spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandements, and so purchase to our selues through thy iust iudgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) forasmuch as we are displeased with our selues, for the finnes we haue committed against thee, and do vnfaignedly repent vs of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercie vpon vs, to forgine all our sins, and increase thy holy Spirit in vs, that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our owne vrichteousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruites as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will: not for the worthinesse thereof, but for the merits of thy dearely beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our onely Sauour, whom thou hast already giuen an oblation and offering for our finnes, and for whose sake we are certainly perswaded, that thou wilt denie vs nothing that we shal aske in his name, according to thy will. For thy spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so louest vs thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and fauour from vs. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Sonne and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.

A Prayer to be said before a man
begin his worke.

O Lord God, most mercifull Father & Sauour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command vs to trauel that we may relieue our neede, we beseech thee of thy grace so to blesse our labour, that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the which we are not able to continue: & that this great fauor may be a witnesse vnto vs of thy bountifullnesse and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs.

Moreouer, O Lord, we beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen vs with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully trauell in our state and vocation without fraud or deceit, & that we may endeavour our selues to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then seeke to satisfie our greedie affections, or desire to gaine. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, giue vs a mind also to helpe them that haue need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt giue vs: and knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selues to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift our selues aboue them which haue not receiued so large a portion of thy mercie as thou hast giuen vs. And if it please thee (O Lord) to trie & exercise vs by greater pouertie and necessitie then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant vs grace to know that thou wilt nourish vs continually through thy bountifull liberality, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently waite till thou fill vs, not onely with corporall graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spirituall treasures; to the intent that we may always haue more ample occasion to giue thee thanks, and wholly to rest vpon thy mercies. Heare vs (O Lord) of mercie, through Iesus Christ thy Sonne our Lord, Amen.

A Prayer for the whole estate of Christs Church.

Almightie God and most mercifull Father, we humbly subnit our selues, and fall downe before thy maiestie, beseeching thee from the bottome of our hearts, that this seed of thy word now sowne amongst vs, may take such deepe roote, that neither the heate of burning persecution cause it to wither, neither the thornie cares of this life choke it, but that as seed sowne in good ground, it may bring forth thirtie, sixtie, and an hundred fold, as thy heavenly wisdom hath appointed. And because we haue need continually to craue many things at thy hands, we humbly beseech thee (O heavenly Father) to grant vs thy holy Spirit to direct our petitions, that they may proceed from such a feruent mind, as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will; and seeing that our infirmities are able to do nothing without thy helpe, and that thou art not ignorant with how many & great temptations we poore wretches are on euery side enclosed and compassed; let thy strength (O Lord) sustaine our weaknesse, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be safely preserved against all assaults of Satan, who goeth about continually like a roaring Lion seeking to deuoure vs. Increase our faith (O mercifull Father) that we do not auerue at any time from thy heavenly word, but augment in vs hope and loue, with a careful keeping of all thy commandements, that no hardnesse of heart, no hypocrisie, no concupiscence of the eyes, nor inticements of the world, do draw vs away from thy obedience. And seeing we liue now in these most perillous times, let thy fatherly prouidence defend vs against the violence of our enemies, which do seeke by all meanes to oppresse thy truth.

Furthermore, forasmuch as by thy holy Apostle we be taught to make our praier and supplications for all men: we pray not onely for our selues here present, but beseech thee also to reduce all such as be yet ignorant, from this miserable captiui-tie of blindnesse and error, to the pure vnderstanding and knowledge of the truth: that we all with one accord and vntie of mind, may worship thee our holy God and Saviour. And that all Pastors, Shepherds and Ministers, to whom thou hast committed the dispensation of thy holy word & charge of thy chosen people, may both in their life and doctrine be found faithful, setting onely before their eyes thy glorie; and that by them all poore sheepe which wander and go astray, may be gathered and brought home to thy fold.

Moreouer, because the hearts of Rulers are in thy hands, we beseech thee to direct and gouerne the hearts of all Kings, Princes and magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword; especially (O Lord) according to our bounden dutie, we beseech thee to maintaine and increase the honorable estate of the Kings maiestie; & all his most noble Counsellors, and Magistrates, with all the spirituall Pastors & Ministers, with all the whole bodie of this Common-weale. Let thy fatherly fauour so preserve them, and thy holy Spirit so gouerne their hearts, that they may in such sort execute their office, that thy religion may be purely maintained, manners reformed, and sinne punished, according to the precise rule of thy holy word. And for that we be all members of the mysticall bodie of Iesus Christ, we make our requests vnto thee (O heavenly Father) for all such as be afflicted with any kinde of crosse or tribulation, as warre, plague, famine, sicknesse, pouertie, imprisonment, persecution, banishment, or any other kinde of thy rods, whether it be calamities of body, or vexation of mind, that it would please thee to giue them patience and constancie, till thou send them full deliuerance of all their troubles. Root out from hence (O Lord) all rauening Wolves, which to fill their bellies seeke to destroy thy flocke. And shew thy great mercies vpon those our brethren in other countries, which are persecuted, cast into prison, and daily condemned for the testimony of thy truth. And though they be vtterly destitute of all mans aide, yet let thy sweet comfort neuer depart from them, but so inflame their hearts with thy holy Spirit, that they may boldly and chearefully abide such triall as thy godly wisdom shall appoint. So that at length as well by their death, as by their life, the kingdom of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ may increase and shine through all the world. In whose Name we make our humble petitions vnto thee, as he hath taught vs, Our Father which art, &c.

A Prayer against the Deuil, and his manifold temptations, made by S. Augustine.

There wanted a tempter, and thou wast the cause that he was wanting: there wanted time and place, and thou wast the cause that they wanted. The tempter was present, and there wanted neither place nor time, but thou heldest me backe that I should not consent. The tempter came full of darknesse as he is, and thou didst harden me that I might despise him. The tempter came armed and strongly; but to the intent he should not overcome me, thou didst restrain him, and strengthen me. The tempter came transformed into an Angell of light, and to the intent he should not deceiue me, thou didst rebuke him; and to the intent I should know him, thou didst enlighten me. For he is the great red Dragon, the old Serpent, called the Deuil and Satan, which hath seven heads and ten hornes, whom thou hast created to take his pleasure in this huge and broad sea, wherein there creepe lining wights innumerable, and beasts great and small, that is to say, diuers sorts of fiends, which practiseth nothing else day and night, but goeth about seeking whom he may deuoure, except thou resist him, O Lord Iesus. For it is that old Dragon which draweth downe the third part of the stars of heauen with his taile, and casteth them to the ground, which with his venome poysoneth the waters of the earth, that as many men as drinke of the, may die; which trampleth vpon gold, as it were mire, and is of opinion that Iordan shall runne into his mouth, and which is made of such a mold, that he feareth no man. And who shall saue vs from his chops, O Lord Iesus? who shall plucke vs out of his mouth, saying thou, O Lord, who hast broken the head of this great Dragon? Help vs Lord, spread out thy wings ouer vs, O Lord, that we may see vnder them from the face of this Dragon that pursueth vs: and fence thou vs from his hornes, with thy shield. For this is his continuall endeour, this is his onely desire, to deuoure the soules which thou hast created. And therefore we crie vnto thee O God, deliuer vs from our daily aduersary, who whether we sleep or wake, whether we eate or drinke, or whether we be doing any thing else, presseth vpon vs by all kinde of means, assailing vs day and night with traines and policies, and shooting his venomous arrows at vs, sometime openly, and sometime priuily, to slay our soules. And yet such is our great madnesse, O Lord, in that whereas we see the Dragon continually in a readinesse to deuoure vs with open mouth, we neuertheless do sleepe, and reioyce in our owne slothfulnesse, as though we were out of his danger, who desireth nothing else, but to destroy vs. Our mischieuous enemy, to the intent to kill vs, watcheth continually, and neuer sleepe, and yet will not we awake from sleepe to saue our selues. Behold he hath pitched infinite snares before our feete, and filled all our waies with sundrie traps, to catch our soules. And who can escape, O Lord Iesus, so many and great dangers? He hath laid snares for vs in our riches, in our potherie, in our meate, in our drinke, in our pleasures, in our sleepe, & in our waking: he hath set snares for vs in our words and in our workes, and in all our life. But thou O Lord deliuer vs from the net of the fowler, and from hard words, that we may giue praise to thee, saying: Blessed be the Lord, who hath not giuen vs vp to be a prey for their teeth, our soule is deliuered as a sparrow out of the fowlers net: the net is broken, and we escaped.

The Confession of the Christian Faith.

I beleene and confesse my Lord God, eternall, infinite, vnmeasurable, incomprehensible and inuisible, one in substance and three in person, Father, Sonne and holy Ghost: who by his almightie power and wisdom, hath not onely of nothing created heauen, earth, and all things therein contained, and man after his owne image, that he might in him be glorified: but also by his fatherly prouidence governeth, maintaineth, and preserveth the same according to the purpose of his will.

I beleene also and confesse Iesus Christ the onely Sauour and Messias, who being equall with God, made himselfe of no reputation, but tooke on him the shape of a seruant, and became man in all things like vnto vs, except sin, to assure vs of mercie and forgiveness. For when through our father Adams transgression we were become children of perdition, there was no meane to bring vs from that yoke of sin and damnation, but onely Iesus Christ our Lord, who giuing vs that by grace, which was his by nature, made vs through faith the children of God: who when the fullnesse of time was come, was conceived by the power of the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Marie (according to the flesh) and preached in earth the Gospel of saluation, til at the length by tyranny of the Priests, he was guiltlesse condemned vnder Pontius Pilate, then President of Iurie, and most slanderously hanged on the crosse be-twelve two thence, as a notorious trespasser, where taking vpon him the punishment for our sinnes; he deliuered vs from the curse of the Law.

And forasmuch as he being onely God, could not feeble death, neither being onely man could overcome death; he ioyned both together, and suffered his humanitie to be punished with most cruel death, feeling in himselfe the anger and seuerie indgement of God, euen as if he had been in extreame torments of hell; and therefore cried with a loud voice, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Thus of his free mercie, without compulsion, he offered vp himselfe as the onely sacrifice to purge the sinnes of all the world; so that all other sacrifices for sin are blasphemous, and derogate from the sufficiency hercof: which death, albeit it did sufficiently reconcile vs to God, yet the Scriptures commonly do attribute our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising againe from the graue the third day, he conquered death; euen so the victorie of our faith standeth in his resurrection: and therefore without the one, we cannot feeble the benefits of the other. For as by his death sinne was taken away: so our righteousness was restored by his resurrection. And because hee would accomplish all things, and take possession for vs in his kingdome, he ascended into heauen, to enlarge the same kingdome by the abundant power of his Spirit, by whom we are most assured of his continuall intercession towards God the Father for vs.

And although he be in heauen, as touching his corporall presence, where the Father hath now set him at his right hand committing vnto him the administration of all things, as wel in heauen above, as in earth beneath: yet is he present with vs his members, euen to the end of the world, in preserving and governing vs with his effectuall power and grace, who (when all things are fulfilled, which God hath spoken by the mouth of his Prophets since the world began) wil come in the same visible forme wherein he ascended; with an unspeakable maiestie, power and companie, to separate the Lambes from the Goates, the elect from the reprobate: so that none, whether he be alie then, or dead before, shall escape his iudgement.

Moreouer, I beleue and confesse the holy Ghost, God equall with the Father and the Son, who regenerateth and sanctifieth vs, and ruleth and guideth vs into all truth, perswading most assuredly in our consciences, that we be the children of God, brethren to Iesus Christ, and fellow heires with him of life euerlasting: yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to beleue that God is omnipotent and mercifull, that Christ hath made satisfaction, or that the holy Ghost hath his power and effect, except we do apply the same benefites to vs, which are Gods elect.

I beleue therefore and confesse one holy Church, which as members of Iesus Christ the onely head thereof, consent in faith, hope, and charitie, vsing the gifts of God, whether they be temporall or spirituall, to the profit and furtherance of the same: which Church is not seene to mans eye, but only knowne to God, who of the lost sonnes of Adam, hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercy to be saved, the which in due time he calleth to integritie of life and godly conversation, to make it a glorious Church to himselfe.

But that Church which is visible & seene to the eye, hath threetobens and markes wherby it may be knowne. First, the word of God contained in the old and new Testament, which as it is about the authoritie of the same Church, and onely sufficient to instruct vs in all things concerning saluation, so is it left for all degrees of men to reade & vnderstand. For without this word, neither Church, Councell, nor Decree, can stablish any point touching saluation.

The second marke, is the holy Sacraments, to wit, of Baptisme and the Lords Supper, which Sacraments Christ hath left vnto vs, as holy signes and seales of Gods promises. For as by Baptisme once receiued is signified, that we (as well infants, as other of age and discretion) being strangers from God by originall sin, are receiued into his familie and cōgregation, with full assurance, that although this root of sinne lie hid in vs, yet to the elect it shall not be imputed: so the Supper declareth, that God as a most prouident Father doth not onely feed our bodies, but also spiritually nourisheth our soules with the graces and benefites of Iesus Christ, (which the Scripture calleth eating of his flesh and drinking of his blood:) neither must we in the administration of the Sacraments, follow mans fantasie, but as Christ himselfe hath ordained, so must they be ministred, and by such as by ordinary vocation are thereunto called. Therefore whosoever reserueth or worshipping these Sacraments, or contrariwise contemneth them in time and place, procureth to himselfe damnation.

The third mark of this Church, is Ecclesiasticall discipline, which standeth in admonition and correction of faults: the finall end whereof is excommunication, by the consent of the Church determined, if the offender be obstinate. And beside this

Eccle.

Prayers.

Ecclesiastical discipline, I acknowledge to belong to this Church, a politicke Magistrate, who ministreth to euery man iustice, defending the good, and punishing the euill: To whom we must render honor and obedience in all things, which are not contrary to the word of God. And as Moses, Ezechias, Iosias, and other godly rulers purged the Church of God from superstition and idolatrie, so the defence of Christs Church appertaineth to the Christian Magistrates, against al Idolaters and heretiks, as Papists, Anabaptists, with such like lims of Antichrist; to root out all doctrine of deuils and men, as the Masse, Purgatorie, Limbus Patrum, Prayer to Saints, and for the dead, Freewill, Distinction of meates, apparell and dayes, voves of single life, Presence at idoll seruice, mans merits, with such like: which draw vs from the societie of Christs Church, wherein standeth onely remission of sins, purchased by Christs blood to all them that beleene, whether they be Iewes or Gentiles; and leade vs to vaine confidence in creatures and trust to our owne imagination: the punishment whereof, although God oftentimes deferreth in this life, yet after the generall resurrection, when our soules and bodies shall rise againe to immortalitie, they shall be damned to vnuenchable fire: and then we which haue forsaken all mens wisdom, to cleane vnto Christ, shall heare that ioyfull voyce: Come ye blessed of my Father, inherite the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world: and so shall go triumphing with him in body and soule to remaine euerlastingly in glory, where we shall see God face to face, and shall no more need to instruct one another, for we shall all know him from the highest to the lowest: to whom with the Senne, and the holy Ghost, be all praise, honour, and glorie, now and euer. So be it;
